Council Will Be Urged to Take Speedy Action on the Question of Extending Boundaries.

RAILWAY ORDINANCE TOO LONG DELAYED

The regular meeting of council tomorrow evening will undoubtedly be productive of much business of importance. Several issues of weight will, however, be left over for the next meeting, owing to the absence of Solicitor Davidson, who, had he been in the city today, would have been called upon to prepare at least two highly important ordinances.

Councilman Cannon stated this morning that he means business when he says that the boundary lines of the city must be extended and that he will also insist on an ordinance to govern the local opera house.

"It is only for the benefit of the people that I want the boundary extended," said Mr. Cannon. "The city would not be in such an embarrassing condition financially if some of this adjacent territory were added. I think that when these people enjoy the privileges of the people in the central part of the city they should pay for it and I will do all I can to have them do so."

FORMER POTTER OF THIS CITY

George Boyd Has Risen to Prominence in Labor Circles in Pittsburg.

In giving an account of the election of officers of the Pittsburg branch No. 3, International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, a Pittsburg paper yesterday gives a short sketch and an excellent likeness of a former well known East Liverpool man.

George Boyd years ago made slip in the East Liverpool pottery district. At that time he was one of the most prominent and best members of local union No. 21 and was identified with every move for its welfare and advancement. He left here several years ago and engaged in the structural iron trade at Pittsburg. Soon afterward his fellow workers, recognizing his superior intellect and ability as a leader, elected him to the position of business agent of No. 3. From that time to the present he has been prominent in labor circles in and about Pittsburg, and to him as business agent of No. 3 is due, in a great measure, the success of the organization.

REV. C. E. LOCKE GOES TO BROOKLYN

Son of Rev. Dr. W. H. Locke, Former Pastor of First M. E. Church, Here.

Rev. Charles Edward Locke, pastor of the Delaware avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Buffalo, and former pastor of Smithfield street church, Pittsburg, has notified his congregation that he has accepted the pastorate of the Hanson Place M. E. church at Brooklyn.

Rev. Mr. Locke is a son of Rev. Dr. W. H. Locke, a former pastor of the First church in this city, now chaplain of the Mansfield reformatory, and has often preached here. He is a brother of Mrs. Thomas B. Anderson, of Chester, and a warm personal friend of Rev. Dr. John Lloyd Lee, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city.

JUDGE DURFLINGER

Near Relative of Mrs. E. M. Knowles, of This City, Gets an Appointment.

Governor Nash has appointed Sylvester W. Durflinger, of London, Madison county, a near relative of Mrs. Knowles, the wife of E. M. Knowles, a manufacturing potter of this city, as judge of the common pleas court, to succeed Joseph Hidy, of Fayette county, resigned, who has arranged to enter to a partnership for practice of law in Cleveland.

Mr. Durflinger was elected last fall to succeed Judge Hidy, whose term equipped. When it is, the people living within a stone's throw of it, who are out of the city limits, will receive all the benefits. They should be incorporated and bear an equal share of the expense. If they were to be incorporated along with the others living adjacent to the city we would have no trouble in raising the money to complete the station and the money received from them would go far in helping other funds of the city."

Mr. Cannon believes also that the railway ordinance should be disposed of without further delay. He says it is an important issue and that the city cannot afford to juggle with it much longer. Other members of council are of the same opinion. It is not thought that the ordinance will be passed at the meeting tomorrow night unless an agreement is reached on a number of amendments, and then it may go through on suspension of rules. Mr. Johnson says he would favor its passage if certain amendments were made, none of which are of much consequence.

would not have expired for some weeks yet. The district being close, he won out by a very small plurality. This is the twenty-first appointment of the kind Governor Nash has made, and the largest number appointed by any governor.

DISPUTE OVER PROPERTY IN SALEM

A Case From This County Carried to Supreme Court For Decision.

Columbus, January 11.—(Special.)—The Columbiana county case of Benjamin E. Trimble, Frank Trimble, Ada Trimble and Ida Adams against Norman M. May, involving May's right to an interest held by his wife, deceased, in property left by Benjamin Trimble, deceased, father of the Trimbles, and Mrs. May, their sister, has reached the supreme court. Ida Adams is the niece of the Trimbles, has mother deceased, having been their sister.

The property in dispute is located on Main street in Salem, and is described as lot No. 4, Samuel Davis' first addition. After the death of his wife, May claimed her interest in these premises. The plaintiff heirs refused to recognize the claim and took the matter to the common pleas court which sustained them. May took the case to the circuit court, which decided in his favor, remanding the case to the common pleas court. The heirs ask the supreme court to overrule the judgment of the circuit court and affirm that of the common pleas court.

CONFINED TO HIS HOME

Sanitary Policeman Burgess Was Seriously Injured By His Recent Fall.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess is confined to his home as the result of an accident that befell him about a week ago when he slipped while alighting from a street car in the East End and fell to the ground. For a few days following the accident he did not suffer to any great extent, but on last Saturday morning he removed the bandages he had placed around his body to hold a broken rib in its proper position, and in a few minutes he was suffering terribly.

He was compelled to take his bed and did not get up until this morning. Though he did not consider the accident of much consequence at first he is now afraid that he will be laid up for quite a while.

Disabled By Rheumatism.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—Theodore Johnson, of East Liverpool, who is badly disabled with rheumatism, was received at the county infirmary Saturday afternoon. He is 45 years old. Two years ago he was cared for at the infirmary through an illness with typhoid fever.

LEETONIA MAN VIOLENTLY INSANE

James S. Jacque Had to Be Locked

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—James S. Jacque, near Leetonia, who had been violently insane for 10 days, became so violent Saturday night that he had to be confined in the Leetonia lockup. Probate Judge Martin adjudged the man insane at a lunacy inquest held at Leetonia yesterday afternoon and arrangements were made whereby Sheriff Johnson took him from that place to the Massillon asylum this morning.

Jacque's trouble is said to be hereditary. A younger brother is an inmate of the Massillon asylum. The demented man is 45 years old, is unmarried and has been an industrious farmer near Leetonia for a number of years.

REV. J. M. GASTON'S NEW PASTORATE

Goes From Hazelwood Shortly to Another Congregation in Pittsburg.

SUCCESSFUL AS A PASTOR

Rev. John M. Gaston, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gaston, of East Liverpool, and pastor of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church in Pittsburg for the past six years, has accepted a call to the Friendship avenue Presbyterian church, Shadyside, in that city, which was organized several months ago. Mr. Gaston received the call about three weeks ago and has been considering it since that time. On Friday evening he met the session of the Hazelwood congregation and asked that body to act with him in securing the dissolution of the pastoral relations. Mr. Gaston will preach to the Friendship avenue congregation Sunday, January 24, and will likely begin his pastoral duties with the new congregation about the third Sunday of February. He will preach his farewell sermon to his present congregation Sunday, February 14. A congregational meeting of the Hazelwood church will be held on January 20 to act upon the resignation.

Mr. Gaston was graduated from Princeton college and Theological seminary and served but one pastorate previous to his present one at Morris Grove, Pa. He has conducted a successful pastorate in Hazelwood and has added many members to the church. During his pastorate he has received a number of good calls to other pastorates, notably one from the First Presbyterian church at Newark, O. The congregation was united in its regret that Mr. Gaston had decided to leave, but will not stand in the way of his preference.

AGED AND CRIPPLED AND LIVES ALONE

Sad Plight of an Unfortunate Woman Who Will Be Taken to the Infirmary.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—A warrant has been issued for the removal of Annie Neil, an aged woman living north of Lisbon, to the county infirmary. Miss Neil lives alone in a dilapidated house and is almost a helpless cripple on account of her advanced age and rheumatic trouble with which she has been a sufferer for many years. She is able to get about the house only by crawling on the floor, but with the aid of neighbors, who have kept her supplied with coal and assisted her in other ways, she has managed to get along.

The aged woman has always rebelled at the suggestion that she go to the infirmary and the authorities may have some difficulty in removing her.

KRUGER BUSY ON CONFESSIONS

Westmoreland Sheriff Is Enjoined From Crowding the Jail at the Hanging.

MESSAGE TO HIS MOTHER

Sent By the Doomed Man—Gov. Pennypacker Interests Himself in the Case—Blevins Story Discredited at New Castle.

"I never expect to see you, mother, again on this earth, but if you are good you will meet me in heaven. And for Jesus' sake send my brothers and sisters to Sunday school and go yourself."

This was the message received by Mrs. John Betowsky, the mother of Emil Betowsky, generally known and sentenced to be hanged at Greensburg Thursday morning under the name of "Charles E. Kruger." The message was brought to the mother, who resides in the country two miles from this city, by Rev. Albert F. Faust, pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city, who at the request of the mother visited her son at Greensburg Saturday. The message was given to the mother over the telephone from this city to the home of a neighbor.

The mother had intended leaving Monday morning for Greensburg, but was persuaded by the minister from doing so, and it is probable that she will not now see her son again. Rev. Mr. Faust also brought her a new testament and a $50 bill which had been sent by her son. In the testament six verses were marked for her to read.

Five children reside with the father and mother of Kruger. The mother spoke of the fate of her boy, saying that she had never been able to control him, and for the past five or six years had seen him only at intervals, during which time the father would leave the house and remain away until the departure of the son.

Rev. Mr. Faust carries a paper with him which Mrs. Betowsky has to sign in the presence of a magistrate, turning the body of her son over to Rev. W. R. Corter, of the Christian church, Greensburg, who will have charge of the funeral services. Rev. Mr. Faust will also be present at the jail Wednesday night, and will stay for the funeral and probably witness the execution. He says Kruger will be baptized in the Greensburg jail tomorrow.

Kruger keeps on making confessions. Saturday he came out with one declaring that his denial of the Blevins murder at New Castle was false and that he was guilty. C. H. Akens and Malcolm McConnell, members of the committee appointed to investigate the murder of City Treasurer John Blevins, say they will ask no reprieve for Kruger, whose alleged confession has revived the bloody tragedy. They knew of the confession shortly after it was made, but did not believe it, and do not now. Of the thousands of citizens who have read the story none have been heard to express their belief in it. They still hold to the theory that the murder was committed by some one who was well acquainted with Blevins.

Gov. S. W. Pennypacker yesterday telegraphed Judge McConnell at Greensburg, asking whether the question of Kruger's sanity had been brought out at the trial. It was replied that no testimony had been offered as to his sanity, other than was developed during the taking of testimony that Kruger had been released from the Ohio insane asylum at Massillon just before he came to Westmoreland county.

Following on the heels of a preliminary injunction, issued by Judge Alexander D. McConnell, to restrain Sheriff John H. Trescher from issuing 1,000 or more permits to the execution of Kruger on Thursday, is the story that the sheriff may evade the injunction by swearing in 200 or more of his friends as special deputies for the occasion, and thus allow them to witness the execution.

James K. Clarke, a prominent business man, appeared before Judge McConnell and asked that an injunction be granted restraining Sheriff Trescher from admitting to the jail at the time of the execution more persons than the law allows. The number is confined to one physician, the district attorney, 12 reputable citizens, two ministers, the immediate relatives of the condemned man, the officers of the prison and the deputies of the sheriff.

Mr. Clarke, in speaking of his move, said: "The good citizens of Westmoreland county are disgusted with the attempt upon the part of those in authority to cater to the morbidly curious, as evidenced by the wholesale issuance of passes to witness the execution. No attempt has been made to obey the law as provided in such cases, and it has become necessary to invoke the aid of the court to bring a stop to the disgraceful proceedings."

During the past few days citizens from every quarter of the county have forwarded protests against reported practices that were being employed by the sheriff in the preparation for the execution of Kruger. It was claimed that hundreds of tickets of admission, said to reach fully 1,400, had been issued by the official. The protests came from the pulpit and from

LOST HIS LIFE IN THE DISASTER

Homer H. Swaney, Well Known Here, Went Down With a Steamer.

A VERY PROMINENT MAN

Recorded among the names of those who lost their lives in the steamer Callam early Saturday morning near Victoria, B. C., is the name of Homer H. Swaney, well known in East Liverpool, who left Pittsburg four years ago to assume the joint position of president and general manager of the Pacific Steel company at Seattle, Wash. Its plant is located at Irondale, Wash. The company is capitalized at $6,000,000. This company is owned by Pittsburg capital. Some of those interested in the company are E. P. Douglas, an attorney of McKeesport; J. C. Smith, a druggist of McKeesport; John W. Painter, a distiller of McKeesport, and James L. Devenny, the real estate dealer. Speaking of Mr. Swaney last night Mr. Devenny said:

"I had been hoping against hope that the Homer H. Swaney who lost his life on the Callam near Victoria was not the president and general manager of the Pacific Steel company. He was known to take business trips to Victoria to the ore mines. Mr. Swaney was a well known member of the Allegheny county bar until four years ago, when he left for the northwest. His knowledge of affairs in general was manifested in many ways. He was an organized, and many improvements which have taken place in Allegheny county can be placed to his credit. Under his supervision the Glenwood and Dravosburg Street Railway company was built and he personally laid out Calhoun park. He built the McKeesport and Duquesne bridge, the White Traction company, which operated between McKeesport and Duquesne; the Fifth avenue bridge in McKeesport and bridges at Boston, Pa.; Sater, Pa., and at East Liverpool."

"Mr. Swaney paid occasional visits to Pittsburg," Mr. Devenny continued, "and was here shortly before Christmas. He left Pittsburg on December 20, to be in Seattle for Christmas and intended to bring his wife and family here on a visit this month. When he was living in Allegheny county he resided in Riverview park, McKeesport, and the house in which he lived is still in his name. His wife's parents reside in Riverview park. When we were organizing the Pacific Steel company, Mr. Swaney was elected president and general manager of the company. For the past four years the main output of the mills has been pig iron, and we were just starting the erection of rolling mills."

Mr. Swaney was 48 years old and was born at Hookstown, Beaver county, where his brother, John Swaney, runs a farm. As a boy he was one of the most energetic in his home town, and early in life manifested a desire for the study of law. He attended the Frankfort academy, and New Wilmington and Monmouth colleges and graduated from a law school in Washington, D. C., where he had a place in the census department. After being admitted to the bar he located in McKeesport, where he became prominent in law and business. In June, 1898, he was married to Miss Mildred Fish, daughter of Rev. B. F. Fish, of Ebensburg, Pa., and besides his wife is survived by two sons, Homer H., Jr., and Benjamin F. Swaney. He was a member of McKeesport lodge No. 135, B. P. O. Elks, and also of the Masonic fraternity of Elizabeth, Pa. Surviv-

PRUNING KNIFE USED UPON THE ESTIMATES

Finance Committee Busily Engaged in Reducing the Figures of the Departments.

THE CUTTING WAS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY

Carrying out the predictions of the News Review the finance committee of council, which met this morning at the city hall, did some wholesale slaughtering when the estimates of the several boards and other departments were taken into consideration. Those present at the meeting were Messrs. Cannon, Moon and Johnson, of council, and Treasurer Horton and Auditor Davidson.

It was not the intention of these men when they met to cut the various estimates just because they could. They did so simply because it is absolutely necessary. They know exactly how much they have to appropriate and know that they cannot go beyond the amount by any crook or means. Realizing this it was up to them to apply a chisel and they did so in a heartless manner. They made the estimates of the board of public safety look really sick and those of the board of public service will hardly be able to recover. Early in the meeting it was stated that a man never knows how little he can live on until he is put to the test. It was argued that although the boards had submitted what they thought reasonable estimates, they could be made much more reasonable if the people of the departments under the heads would just study economy a little.

When the finance committee gets its report in compiled form it will look ing brothers are Robert and John B. Swaney, of Hookstown, while a sister, Mrs. W. J. Cooper lives at Butler, Pa. His aged mother died in this city two years ago.

Mrs. John W. Hall, of East Liverpool, is his sister. His niece, Miss Sara Hall, has been visiting at his home for some time, and it was from her that East Liverpool relatives received confirmation by telegram of the news of his untimely death.

Mr. Swaney was esteemed and respected by all who knew him and his death will be deeply mourned by a very wide circle of relatives and friends.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Center Township Agriculturists Arranging for a Great Meeting January 29 And 30.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—A meeting of those having in charge the arrangement for the Center township annual farmers' institute was held Saturday afternoon in the office of Township Clerk J. J. Bennett. The institute will be held in the common pleas court room Friday and Saturday, January 29 and 30, and it is the intention of the committee in charge to make it one of the best ever held in the county.

The state lecturer are J. A. Dobie, of Anguize county, and C. R. Wagner, of Franklin county. Considerable local talent is included in the program, which is now being arranged and which the committee hopes to have ready for publication this week. A male quartet from East Fairfield had been engaged for the institute, but its members having found that they will be unable to fill the engagement, other arrangements for music are being made.

A Badly Crippled Tramp.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—Jacob Smith, the badly frost-bitten tramp, who was taken to the infirmary from Lisbon a week ago, will lose part of each foot as a result of his exposure. Amputation will probably not be necessary, but large pieces of flesh are dropping from each foot and some cutting will be required in dressing them.

Qualified as Executor.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—John W. Riley has qualified as executor of the estate of the late Mary Matilda Hommel, of Wellsville. Bond, $2,000. Appraisers, Joseph T. Warren, G. W. Adams and C. V. Shoub.

no more like the estimates of the boards than day resembles night, and of course some trouble is anticipated. It is expected that the boards will have representatives at the meeting of council tomorrow night to explain why they need so much, but if the rest of the councilmen are of the same opinion as the finance committee their explanations will be in vain.

There are, however, several of the estimates that will go through without a word of argument. Several of the departments have figured as closely as possible and the finance committee agrees that it would be foolishness to attempt to cut the requisitions. Among these estimates is that of the library board and also of the sinking fund commission. The library board asks for $1,650 and will get it. The sinking fund commission asks for money to pay off bonds as they become due, and interest. Such debts must be paid, and no objections can be offered.

H. E. Bullock, chairman of the finance committee, joined the crowd of hearers this afternoon and it was not long until the estimates were an unrecognized conglomeration of figures. With their coats off, the councilmen went after the requisitions like a hungry dog after a ham bone. They will finish tearing the estimates into shreds this afternoon and will be ready to report at the meeting tomorrow evening.

SMITH FOWLER, JR., NOW A SOLDIER

Well Known Young Man of This City Enlisted in the Marine Service.

Word has been received in this city that on December 15, Smith Fowler, Jr., a well known young man of the community, enlisted in the marine service of the United States. The young man but recently reached his majority, and is peculiarly fitted for the service to which he was assigned.

Young Fowler is a son of J. Q. A. Fowler, a resident of East Liverpool for many years. The father was a veteran of the rebellion, and it was known that the young man always manifested a liking for military service. He stands a trifle over six feet in height, has excellent habits, and physically had few equals among his associates. He has been sent to the League Island navy yards at Philadelphia, where he will go into training for some time. He will be assigned to duty on one of Uncle Sam's men-of-war before spring.

Columbus, January 11.—At the meeting of the Osteopathic Medical society of Ohio Saturday the following officers were elected: President, J. F. Bumpus, East Liverpool; vice president, C. J. B. KRUGER BUSY ON CONFESSIONS

Westmoreland Sheriff Is Enjoined From Crowding the Jail at the Hanging.

MESSAGE TO HIS MOTHER

Sent By the Doomed Man—Gov. Pennypacker Interests Himself in the Case—Blevins Story Discredited at New Castle.

"I never expect to see you, mother, again on this earth, but if you are good you will meet me in heaven. And for Jesus' sake send my brothers and sisters to Sunday school and go yourself."

This was the message received by Mrs. John Betowsky, the mother of Emil Betowsky, generally known and sentenced to be hanged at Greensburg Thursday morning under the name of "Charles E. Kruger." The message was brought to the mother, who resides in the country two miles from this city, by Rev. Albert F. Faust, pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city, who at the request of the mother visited her son at Greensburg Saturday. The message was given to the mother over the telephone from this city to the home of a neighbor.

The mother had intended leaving Monday morning for Greensburg, but was persuaded by the minister from doing so, and it is probable that she will not now see her son again. Rev. Mr. Faust also brought her a new testament and a $50 bill which had been sent by her son. In the testament six verses were marked for her to read.

Five children reside with the father and mother of Kruger. The mother spoke of the fate of her boy, saying that she had never been able to control him, and for the past five or six years had seen him only at intervals, during which time the father would leave the house and remain away until the departure of the son.

Rev. Mr. Faust carries a paper with him which Mrs. Betowsky has to sign in the presence of a magistrate, turning the body of her son over to Rev. W. R. Corter, of the Christian church, Greensburg, who will have charge of the funeral services. Rev. Mr. Faust will also be present at the jail Wednesday night, and will stay for the funeral and probably witness the execution. He says Kruger will be baptized in the Greensburg jail tomorrow.

Kruger keeps on making confessions. Saturday he came out with one declaring that his denial of the Blevins murder at New Castle was false and that he was guilty. C. H. Akens and Malcolm McConnell, members of the committee appointed to investigate the murder of City Treasurer John Blevins, say they will ask no reprieve for Kruger, whose alleged confession has revived the bloody tragedy. They knew of the confession shortly after it was made, but did not believe it, and do not now. Of the thousands of citizens who have read the story none have been heard to express their belief in it. They still hold to the theory that the murder was committed by some one who was well acquainted with Blevins.

Gov. S. W. Pennypacker yesterday telegraphed Judge McConnell at Greensburg, asking whether the question of Kruger's sanity had been brought out at the trial. It was replied that no testimony had been offered as to his sanity, other than was developed during the taking of testimony that Kruger had been released from the Ohio insane asylum at Massillon just before he came to Westmoreland county.

Following on the heels of a preliminary injunction, issued by Judge Alexander D. McConnell, to restrain Sheriff John H. Trescher from issuing 1,000 or more permits to the execution of Kruger on Thursday, is the story that the sheriff may evade the injunction by swearing in 200 or more of his friends as special deputies for the occasion, and thus allow them to witness the execution.

James K. Clarke, a prominent business man, appeared before Judge McConnell and asked that an injunction be granted restraining Sheriff Trescher from admitting to the jail at the time of the execution more persons than the law allows. The number is confined to one physician, the district attorney, 12 reputable citizens, two ministers, the immediate relatives of the condemned man, the officers of the prison and the deputies of the sheriff.

Mr. Clarke, in speaking of his move, said: "The good citizens of Westmoreland county are disgusted with the attempt upon the part of those in authority to cater to the morbidly curious, as evidenced by the wholesale issuance of passes to witness the execution. No attempt has been made to obey the law as provided in such cases, and it has become necessary to invoke the aid of the court to bring a stop to the disgraceful proceedings."

During the past few days citizens from every quarter of the county have forwarded protests against reported practices that were being employed by the sheriff in the preparation for the execution of Kruger. It was claimed that hundreds of tickets of admission, said to reach fully 1,400, had been issued by the official. The protests came from the pulpit and from

Homer H. Swaney, Well Known Here, Went Down With a Steamer.

A VERY PROMINENT MAN

Recorded among the names of those who lost their lives in the steamer Clallam early Saturday morning near Victoria, B. C., is the name of Homer H. Swaney, well known in East Liverpool, who left Pittsburg four years ago to assume the joint position of president and general manager of the Pacific Steel company at Seattle, Wash. Its plant is located at Ironside, Wash. The company is capitalized at $6,000,000. This company is owned by Pittsburg capital. Some of those interested in the company are E. P. Douglas, an attorney of McKeesport; J. C. Smith, a druggist of McKeesport; John W. Painter, a distiller of McKeesport, and James L. Devenny, the real estate dealer. Speaking of Mr. Swaney last night Mr. Devenny said:

"I had been hoping against hope that the Homer H. Swaney who lost his life on the Clallam near Victoria was not the president and general manager of the Pacific Steel company. He was known to take business trips to Victoria to the ore mines. Mr. Swaney was a well known member of the Allegheny county bar until four years ago, when he left for the northwest. His knowledge of affairs in general was manifested in many ways. He was an organized, and many improvements which have taken place in Allegheny county can be placed to his credit. Under his supervision the Glenwood and Dravosburg Street Railway company was built and he personally laid out Calhoun park. He built the McKeesport and Duquesne bridge, the White Traction company, which operated between McKeesport and Duquesne; the Fifth avenue bridge in McKeesport and bridges at Boston, Pa.; Suter, Pa., and at East Liverpool."

"Mr. Swaney paid occasional visits to Pittsburg," Mr. Devenny continued, "and was here shortly before Christmas. He left Pittsburg on December 20, to be in Seattle for Christmas and intended to bring his wife and family here on a visit this month. When he was living in Allegheny county he resided in Riverview park, McKeesport, and the house in which he lived is still in his name. His wife's parents reside in Riverview park. When we were organizing the Pacific Steel company, Mr. Swaney was elected president and general manager of the company. For the past four years the main output of the mills has been pig iron, and we were just starting the erection of rolling mills."

Mr. Swaney was 48 years old and was born at Hookstown, Beaver county, where his brother, John Swaney, runs a farm. As a boy he was one of the most energetic in his home town, and early in life manifested a desire for the study of law. He attended the Frankfort academy, and New Wilmington and Monmouth colleges and graduated from a law school in Washington, D. C., where he had a place in the census department. After being admitted to the bar he located in McKeesport, where he became prominent in law and business. In June, 1898, he was married to Miss Mildred Fish, daughter of Rev. B. F. Fish, of Ebensburg, Pa., and besides his wife is survived by two sons, Homer H., Jr., and Benjamin F. Swaney. He was a member of McKeesport lodge No. 135, B. P. O. Elks, and also of the Masonic fraternity of Elizabeth, Pa. Surviv-

PRUNING KNIFE USED UPON THE ESTIMATES

Finance Committee Busily Engaged in Reducing the Figures of the De- partments.

THE CUTTING WAS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY

Carrying out the predictions of the News Review the finance committee of council, which met this morning at the city hall, did some wholesale slaughtering when the estimates of the several boards and other departments were taken into consideration. Those present at the meeting were Messrs. Cannon, Moon and Johnson, of council, and Treasurer Horton and Auditor Davidson.

It was not the intention of these men when they met to cut the various estimates just because they could. They did so simply because it is absolutely necessary. They know exactly how much they have to appropriate and know that they cannot go beyond the amount by any crook or means. Realizing this it was up to them to apply a chisel and they did so in a heartless manner. They made the estimates of the board of public safety look really sick and those of the board of public service will hardly be able to recover. Early in the meeting it was stated that a man never knows how little he can live on until he is put to the test. It was argued that although the boards had submitted what they thought reasonable estimates, they could be made much more reasonable if the people of the departments under the heads would just study economy a little.

When the finance committee gets its report in compiled form it will look ing brothers are Robert and John B. Swaney, of Hookstown, while a sister, Mrs. W. J. Cooper lives at Butler, Pa. His aged mother died in this city two years ago.

Mrs. John W. Hall, of East Liverpool, is his sister. His niece, Miss Sara Hall, has been visiting at his home for some time, and it was from her that East Liverpool relatives received confirmation by telegram of the news of his untimely death.

Mr. Swaney was esteemed and respected by all who knew him and his death will be deeply mourned by a very wide circle of relatives and friends.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Center Township Agriculturists Ar- ranging for a Great Meeting January 29 and 30.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—A meeting of those having in charge the arrangement for the Center township annual farmers' institute was held Saturday afternoon in the office of Township Clerk J. J. Bennett. The institute will be held in the common pleas court room Friday and Saturday, January 29 and 30, and it is the intention of the committee in charge to make it one of the best ever held in the county.

The state lecturer are J. A. Dolbe of Auglaize county, and C. R. Wagner of Franklin county. Considerable local talent is included in the program, which is now being arranged and which the committee hopes to have ready for publication this week. A male quartet from East Fairfield had been engaged for the institute, but its members having found that they will be unable to fill the engagement, other arrangements for music are being made.

A Badly Crippled Tramp.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—Jacob Smith, the badly frost-bitten tramp, who was taken to the infirmary from Lisbon a week ago, will lose part of each foot as a result of his exposure. Amputation will probably not be necessary, but large pieces of flesh are dropping from each foot and some cutting will be required in dressing them.

Qualified as Executor.

Lisbon, January 11.—(Special.)—John W. Riley has qualified as executor of the estate of the late Mary Matilda Hommel, of Wellsville. Bond, $2,000. Appraisers, Joseph T. Warren, G. W. Adams and C. V. Shoub.

no more like the estimates of the boards than day resembles night, and of course some trouble is anticipated. It is expected that the boards will have representatives at the meeting of council tomorrow night to explain why they need so much, but if the rest of the councilmen are of the same opinion as the finance committee their explanations will be in vain.

There are, however, several of the estimates that will go through without a word of argument. Several of the departments have figured as closely as possible and the finance committee agrees that it would be foolishness to attempt to cut the requisitions. Among these estimates is that of the library board and also of the sinking fund commission. The library board asks for $1,650 and will get it. The sinking fund commission asks for money to pay off bonds as they become due, and interest. Such debts must be paid, and no objections can be offered.

H. E. Bullock, chairman of the finance committee, joined the crowd of hearers this afternoon and it was not long until the estimates were an unrecognized conglomeration of figures. With their coats off, the councilmen went after the requisitions like a hungry dog after a ham bone. They will finish tearing the estimates into shreds this afternoon and will be ready to report at the meeting tomorrow evening.

SMITH FOWLER, JR., NOW A SOLDIER

Well Known Young Man of This City Enlisted in the Marine Service.

Word has been received in this city that on December 15, Smith Fowler, Jr., a well known young man of the community, enlisted in the marine service of the United States. The young man but recently reached his majority, and is peculiarly fitted for the service to which he was assigned.

Young Fowler is a son of J. Q. A. Fowler, a resident of East Liverpool for many years. The father was a veteran of the rebellion, and it was known that the young man always manifested a liking for military service. He stands a trifle over six feet in height, has excellent habits, and physically had few equals among his associates. He has been sent to the League Island navy yards at Philadelphia, where he will go into training for some time. He will be assigned to duty on one of Uncle Sam's men-of-war before spring.

MR. CROSS HERE.

F. R. Cross, formerly art director at the Severs plant here, who resigned a week or so ago to take a similar position with the Barberton Pottery company, came in from that city Saturday to spend Sunday with his family. Mr. Cross has taken charge of the decorating department there, which is running in full, he states, in spite of the fact that a state of strike exists. The entire plant is in partial operation, he claims, the striking potters being still out and at work in various other manufacturing concerns. Until a short time ago the plant paid little or no attention to the high grade goods, a great per cent of the product being for scheme purposes. They are now after the high class trade and as the new manager of the plant is producing an excellent quality of ware, it was necessary to raise the standard of decorations, Mr. Cross being employed for this purpose. During his stay in this city, Mr. Cross was known as one of the most successful of local art directors and produced excellent results as to quality and quantity of work. His family will remain here until the weather is more suitable for moving.

A FINE CALENDAR.

The K. T. & K. pottery has issued a handsome lithographed calendar among its many customers as a reminder that the firm is still in the lead with American-made ware. The calendar is in six sheets, showing as many girl heads, each inscribed with a toast from cupid. The calendar is a work of art and will be appreciated by the recipients.

MORE PLANTS STARTED.

The number of active plants was increased this morning and at other plants where operation was commenced last Monday, additional men were added. There is more activity in local pottery circles now than during the same period last year and all in the trade are taking an optimistic view of the situation.

POTTERY NOTES.

N. T. Allensworth has accepted a good position in the decorating department of the Oliver at Sebring. Joseph Spivey, who formerly held the Pittsburg Orchestra Concerts.

The eleventh set of concerts of the season by the Pittsburg orchestra, Victor Herbert conductor, will be given on Friday evening, January 15, and Saturday afternoon, January 16, in Carnegie music hall, Pittsburg. Madame Lillian Blauvelt, soprano, is the soloist at these concerts. The program is strictly modern, with particular interest resting in Mr. Herbert's vigorous and dramatic symphonic poem. A novelty in the list is the ballet music by Glazounov. Lillian Blauvelt, the soloist, still holds first position among the strictly American concert sopranos. There are always good seats to be had for both the evening and afternoon concerts. For afternoon concerts the price this season for any seat in Carnegie music hall is 50 cents. The ticket office is at Hamilton's music store, Pittsburg, and tickets can be ordered by mail or telephone.

SAVING GOSPEL OF THE BIBLE

It Sets the High Standard Which All Men Should Strive to Reach.

ACTIVITY IS NECESSARY

If We Would Make the Most of the Christian Life—An Able Sermon at the Presbyterian Church By Rev. J. H. Cooper.

Two excellent sermons were preached yesterday at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. J. H. Cooper, an able minister of Oxford, O. The congregations at each service were unusually large and they highly enjoyed the well prepared addresses. In the morning, Rev. Mr. Cooper chose as his text the 23d verse of the last chapter of Revelation, "And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof."

"We are identified with heaven, when we are drawn into the folds of Jesus Christ," said the minister, "and as we are brought to God through the teachings of the Bible, we should earnestly strive to learn it and never forsake it. The Bible is a universal gospel, coming forth to save all men. It sets before us a high standard, which we shall certainly reach if we live as the Bible teaches. There is a promise in the gospel that all efforts shall be rewarded. Knowing this, we should work with zeal. It is our ambition to reap a harvest of plenty, no difference what we may pursue, and desiring to gain rich revenues in our next life we should not be at leisure in the days we are on earth."

"Christian activity is a necessity if we wish to bring about the high standard of revenue. This is an age when great things are wrought, not alone by raw but by the brain, and the brain should be applied with all its powers to Christianity. In heaven there is no night, no sorrow, no weeping, no pain and no curse. We are today living in a land of death and of sorrow. There are none who would not rather spend eternity in such a place as heaven. In its realms are found everything that is lovely and the happiness that is derived there makes it well worth the while of all on this earth in making preparation for such a home. We should love the gospel more than any earthly gift because through it we can attain a place in heaven. God has illuminated every soul. We are not children of darkness. These lights are temporary, they have that mission. Even our lives are temporary."

"Reason, conscience and revelation are the lights by which we live. They are given up by God for the purpose of endowing us with power to comprehend the gospel, and define that which is right and that which is wrong. The Lord is the unspeakable gift. He was presented to us so we might not be deluded. Reason was illuminated when the Lord was sent to the earth. Jesus is the light of the world. In Jesus we find the essence of the statement that we will need no sun or moon. We have in the word of God that which is the voice of the soul. It shines so effectually that it removes sorrow, pain and weeping and does wonders unspeakable. The gospel has wrought a great transformation on the earth. Its light is practical in that it brings Christ to our lives. This light falls on the benighted intellect, on the heathen and all types of humanity. It comes like the rays of the sun effecting everything upon which it shines. We are not to raise curious questions. The gospel is not a telescope, it is a compass. It is here to guide us as the mariner is guided across the boundless sea. It teaches us the right direction to pursue. It brings us at last to the haven of rest. We are now on the way to the blessings we shall share in Jerusalem. We are already enjoying all that we are capable of receiving."

"The gospel has that which enriches the soul and causes it to leap with joy and keeps the Christian in an ecstasy of love and happiness. It causes all graces to grow and Christian characters to improve. If we are born in the spirit we are as absolutely in heaven as we ever will be, therefore let us accept God now, and commence to enjoy that which awaits us in our eternal lives."

THE SAV OR WAS AN EVANGELIST

This Characteristic Preeminent—Revival Services Begun at First M. E. Church.

There was a notable increase in the attendance at the First Methodist church yesterday, the day being eventful as the beginning of a series of nightly revival meetings. These services promise to be as successful and fruitful as those last year conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pratt. Then, it will be remembered, meetings were held nightly for 11 weeks and religious interest was aroused to an extent not known in the church for years. Those meetings were the first of the kind of Rev. Dr. Pratt's pastorate here and he proved himself an evangelist of great eloquence and power.

It is being arranged by the Epworth League for a choir of 50 consecrated voices for the choir during these services and all who care to assist in this part of the work should report for duty. The services will continue nightly for about two weeks, or until further announcement.

The sermons yesterday were appropriate to the evangelistic work about to be commenced and were full of interest and comfort. At the morning service three new members were received by letter.

Dr. Pratt's morning subject, "A De-precated Flock," was taken from the parable of the ninety and nine, the minister taking its lesson to show that Christ was preeminently an evangelist. Christ's love for the one wanderer is so great that he cannot rest easily with him missing from the flock.

Christ came to correct the erroneous impression of God, of whom the people had but an incomplete conception. The God of Abraham, of Moses, of David and other patriarchs was held in exorable, harsh, stern and unrelenting. But Christ's teachings modified this belief and gradually people came to see that back of His justice is mercy and love, that though a Sovereign He is a Father. Christ did not change the conception of God, but filled it out and made it complete.

That the evangelistic force was dominant in Christ is shown in the parable, thinks the minister, and he who would follow Him must bring men to Him. We should be willing to deny ourselves and make sacrifices. Christ died on the cross for us and we should do that for Him.

STEAMSHIPS BATTERED.

La Savoie and New York Have Tempestuous Voyages.

New York, Jan. 11.—The American line steamer New York and the French line steamer La Savoie, just in, encountered terrific gales and seas. The New York had slowed down in the gale to secure some gear, when an enormous sea curled over the bow and swept overboard E. Comulisch, a seaman. A life buoy was sent after him and Second Officer Keys, taking a turn about his body with a line, jumped into the sea after the seaman, who had in the meantime secured a hold on the buoy. Before the second officer could get to the unfortunate man Comulisch lost his grasp on the buoy and disappeared. The second officer was then hauled on board. La Savoie also caught the gale and a wave of tremendous height smashed in the forward bulkhead of the smoking room. No one was hurt.

MR. CROSS HERE.

F. R. Cross, formerly art director at the Sebring plant here, who resigned a week or so ago to take a similar position with the Parberson Pottery company, came in from that city Saturday to spend Sunday with his family. Mr. Cross has taken charge of the decorating department there, which is running in full, he states, in spite of the fact that a state of strike exists. The entire plant is in partial operation, he claims, the striking potters being still out and at work in various other manufacturing concerns. Until a short time ago the plant paid little or no attention to the high grade goods, a great per cent of the product being for scheme purposes. They are now after the high class trade and as the new manager of the plant is producing an excellent quality of ware, it was necessary to raise the standard of decorations, Mr. Cross being employed for this purpose. During his stay in this city, Mr. Cross was known as one of the most successful of local art directors and produced excellent results as to quality and quantity of work. His family will remain here until the weather is more suitable for moving.

A FINE CALENDAR.

The K. T. & K. pottery has issued a handsome lithographed calendar among its many customers as a reminder that the firm is still in the lead with American-made ware. The calendar is in six sheets, showing as many girl heads, each inscribed with a toast from cupid. The calendar is a work of art and will be appreciated by the recipients.

MORE PLANTS STARTED.

The number of active plants was increased this morning and at other plants where operation was commenced last Monday, additional men were added. There is more activity in local pottery circles now than during the same period last year and all in the trade are taking an optimistic view of the situation.

SAVING GOSPEL OF THE BIBLE

It Sets the High Standard Which All Men Should Strive to Reach.

ACTIVITY IS NECESSARY

Two excellent sermons were preached yesterday at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. J. H. Cooper, an able minister of Oxford, O. The congregations at each service were unusually large and they highly enjoyed the well prepared addresses. In the morning, Rev. Mr. Cooper chose as his text the 23d verse of the last chapter of Revelation, "And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it; for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof."

"We are identified with heaven, when we are drawn into the folds of Jesus Christ," said the minister, "and as we are brought to God through the teachings of the Bible, we should earnestly strive to learn it and never forsake it. The Bible is a universal gospel, coming forth to save all men. It sets before us a high standard, which we shall certainly reach if we live as the Bible teaches. There is a promise in the gospel that all efforts shall be rewarded. Knowing this, we should work with zeal. It is our ambition to reap a harvest of plenty, no difference what we may pursue, and desiring to gain rich revenues in our next life we should not be at leisure in the days we are on earth."

"Christian activity is a necessity if we wish to bring about the high standard of revenue. This is an age when great things are wrought, not alone by brain but by the brain and the brain should be applied with all its powers to Christianity. In heaven there is no night, no sorrow, no weeping, no pain and no curse. We are today living in a land of death and of sorrow. There are none who would not rather spend eternity in such a place as heaven. In its realms are found everything that is lovely and the happiness that is derived there makes it well worth the while of all on this earth in making preparation for such a home. We should love the gospel more than any earthly gift because through it we can attain a place in heaven. God has illuminated every soul. We are not children of darkness. These lights are temporary, they have their mission. Even our lives are temporary."

"Reason, conscience and revelation are the lights by which we live. They are given up by God for the purpose of endowing us with power to comprehend the gospel, and define that which is right and that which is wrong. The Lord is the unspokeable gift. He was presented to us so we might not be deluded. Reason was illuminated when the Lord was sent to the earth. Jesus is the light of the world. In Jesus we find the essence of the statement that we will need no sun or moon. We have in the word of God that which is the voice of the soul. It shines so effectively that it removes sorrow, pain and weeping and does wonders unspeakable. The gospel has wrought a great transformation on the earth. Its light is practical in that it brings Christ to our lives. This light falls on the benighted intellect, on the heathen and all types of humanity. It comes like the rays of the sun effecting everything upon which it shines. We are not to raise curious questions. The gospel is not a telescope, it is a compass. It is here to guide us as the mariner is guided across the boundless sea. It teaches us the right direction to pursue. It brings us at last to the haven of rest. We are now on the way to the blessings we shall share in Jerusalem. We are already enjoying all that we are capable of receiving."

"The gospel has that which enriches the soul and causes it to leap with joy and keeps the Christian in an ecstasy of love and happiness. It causes all graces to grow and Christian characters to improve. If we are born in the spirit we are as absolutely in heaven as we ever will be, therefore

THE SAV OR WAS AN EVANGELIST

This Characteristic Preeminent—Revival Services Begun at First M. E. Church.

There was a notable increase in the attendance at the First Methodist church yesterday, the day being eventful as the beginning of a series of nightly revival meetings. These services promise to be as successful and fruitful as those last year conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Pratt. Then, it will be remembered, meetings were held nightly for 11 weeks and religious interest was aroused to an extent not known in the church for years. Those meetings were the first of the kind of Rev. Dr. Pratt's pastorate here and he proved himself an evangelist of great eloquence and power.

It is being arranged by the Epworth League for a choir of 50 consecrated voices for the choir during these services and all who care to assist in this part of the work should report for duty. The services will continue nightly for about two weeks, or until further announcement.

The sermons yesterday were appropriate to the evangelistic work about to be commenced and were full of interest and comfort. At the morning service three new members were received by letter.

Dr. Pratt's morning subject, "A Deplorable Flock," was taken from the parable of the ninety and nine, the minister taking it to show that Christ was preeminently an evangelist. Christ's love for the one wanderer is so great that he cannot rest easily with him missing from the flock.

Christ came to correct the erroneous impression of God, of whom the people had but an incomplete conception. The God of Abraham, of Moses, of David and other patriarchs was held inexorable, harsh, stern and unrelenting, but Christ's teachings modified this belief and gradually people came to see that back of His justice is mercy and love, that though a Sovereign He is a Father. Christ did not change the conception of God, but filled it out and made it complete.

That the evangelistic force was dominant in Christ is shown in the parable, thinks the minister, and he who would follow Him must bring men to Him. We should be willing to deny ourselves and make sacrifices. Christ died on the cross for us and we should do that for Him.

STEAMSHIPS BATTERED.

La Savoie and New York Have Tempestuous Voyages.

New York, Jan. 11.—The American line steamer New York and the French line steamer La Savoie, just in, encountered terrific gales and seas. The New York had slowed down in the gale to secure some gear, when an enormous sea curled over the bow and swept overboard E. Comulisch, a seaman. A life buoy was sent after him and Second Officer Keys, taking a turn about his body with a line, jumped into the sea after the seaman, who had in the meantime secured a hold on the buoy. Before the second officer could get to the unfortunate man Comulisch lost his grasp on the buoy and disappeared. The second officer was then hauled on board.

La Savoie also caught the gale and a wave of tremendous height smashed in the forward bulkhead of the smoking room. No one was hurt.

EAST END

ANOTHER SIDE TO THE CONTROVERSY

OAKLAND CITIZENS WILLING TO TAKE WHAT IS OFFERED.

Realize That Free Delivery Is Now Impossible and That Kicking Is Useless.

There is yet another side of the proposed extension of the city mail delivery system and in justice to a large number of residents of the extreme East End, who have taken the matter up, it is here presented. If the present feeling crystallizes into definite action, the developments will be highly interesting. The people who have not yet been heard on the question state that they do not sanction the stand of a certain self-constituted leader, who in spite of the adverse report of Inspector Craighead, is still clamoring for the extension of the delivery system over sparsely settled territory, where there are no sidewalks or house numbers.

"We realize that we cannot get free delivery under the present conditions," said a prominent resident of Oakland this morning, "and if this kicking is kept up we will not get relief that will be afforded in the two propositions, a rural route or a sub-station, offered by the inspector. It cannot be expected that the department ignore precedent and regulation in our own case, and there is no use in fighting when defeat is certain.

"I am told," the speaker continued, "that Inspector Craighead did make a thorough inspection of the extreme East End, in spite of the statement to the contrary. He was driven to a point near Poynter's store, from which he could see to the state line. Before reaching that point he had encountered conditions that made it impossible for him to make a favorable report.

"We propose to stop this useless and annoying policy of obstruction and if we cannot get what we want, be sensible enough to take what is offered. As to the two propositions, a sub-station near Poynter's store or a rural route, there is some difference of opinion, but the latter seems to be in greater favor as it offers relief not only to East End, but to Calhoun's addition and Dixonville.

"The people from Central avenue eastward propose to gradually improve the sidewalks, number the houses, etc., so that in proper time they will be included in the extension of the carrier system."

REV. MR. CROWE HOME

Preached From His Pulpit Morning and Evening to Unusually Large Congregations.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, returned Saturday from Apollo, Pa., where he had been assisting Rev. Mr. Daubenspeck, of the Presbyterian church there, in the services preparatory to communion. Rev. Mr. Crowe preached from his pulpit both morning and evening to large congregations.

The attendance at Sunday school and the church services surpassed any previous records of the church, for an ordinary Sunday with no special services as an attraction. The minister and members of the congregation are much pleased over the great interest manifested.

Thrown From a Colt.

Walter Green, of Smith's Ferry, was seriously injured Sunday evening by being thrown from a colt. Dr. Grimes, of the East End, was called and rendered medical aid. Mr. Green is resting easily to day.

ACCEPTS INVITATION

Rev. D. W. McQuiston Will Assist in Communion Services at New Concord.

Rev. D. W. McQuiston, of the Second United Presbyterian church, received word this morning from Rev. J. A. Kennedy, of the Second U. P. church at New Concord, extending to him an invitation to assist in the services preparatory to communion, commencing Thursday night. Rev. Mr. McQuiston will accept and will remain in New Concord over Sunday.

The pulpit of the church here will be supplied and a definite announcement of who is to preach will be made later.

EAST END AFFAIRS

Postmaster Will Baird is among the sick today.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbs, of Midway.

John Luke, Harvey avenue, Klondike, had a stroke of paralysis last Monday. He is still unconscious.

Grover Burchett, who has been very seriously ill at his home on St. George street, remains in about the same condition.

C. O. Weddell has purchased the interests of those associated with him and is now sole proprietor of the East End Shoe company.

Dr. Grimes was called to Wellsville Sunday on professional business. He was also called today to New Somerset, Jefferson county, to see John Wilson, who has been seriously ill for several days.

Grover Laughlin, of Pennsylvania avenue, is in a serious condition today at his home. He had been ill with measles but took a heavy cold and yesterday pneumonia developed. Laughlin is a member of Buckeye Castle, K. G. E., and his illness has been reported to the lodge officials.

The will of the late William Cooke, who died at the home of relative on Pennsylvania avenue a short time ago, is to be probated at Lisbon tomorrow and Rev. N. M. Crowe and J. W. Wood-ey, who witnessed the instrument, are required to be present. They will leave for Lisbon in the morning.

REAPPOINTMENT FOR J. C. MORRIS

Railway Employees Urging That the Present Railroad Commission Be Retained.

Columbus, January 11.—(Special.)—Surprising unanimity exists among the railroad employees of the state for the reappointment of Hon. J. C. Morris, of Youngstown, as state commissioner of railroads and telegraphs. Though he has not said he would be a candidate for re-appointment, endorsements urging his retention are pouring in from all parts of the state. At a meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen, consisting of 47 lodges, with an aggregate membership of 9,000 in Ohio, in this city Thursday, a resolution was adopted endorsing the administration of Mr. Morris and requesting he be made his successor.

The Grand division of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers of America, with a membership of 35,000, including its board of directors, have adopted resolutions strongly endorsing Mr. Morris. One of the most recent lodges endorsing him is lodge No. 395, Locomotive Firemen, of Canton.

REDS ARE EXPOSED

Pittsburg Priest Points Out Anarchists in His Congregation.

WERE PARTNERS OF CZOLGOSZ

Exciting Scene Takes Place in St. Casimir's Lithuanian Roman Catholic Church—Priest Accuses Them of Plotting Against His Life.

Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—Three alleged members of a band of anarchists who were implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley were driven from St. Casimir's Lithuanian Roman Catholic church, South Twenty-second and Sarah streets, where they had created a riot. The men were declared by the Rev. Father Sutkeltis, pastor of the church, to be preparing to take his life. A guard of police was placed around the priest's residence and warrants were issued for the arrest of the three suspects.

From the altar of his church last night Father Sutkeltis made disclosures of the most startling character. He revealed details in the plot for McKinley's assassination which had never before been brought to light. He declared that a band of "Reds" makes its rendezvous in Pittsburg and holds secret sessions in a secluded house in Forbes street. For years, he said, he has been under their ban, and no efforts would be spared to let himself escape their secret warrant of death.

Standing before his congregation, facing his alleged would-be assassins, the priest fearlessly charged them with their crimes. When his churchmen rose to his support and were ready to vent their wrath upon the men, Father Sutkeltis held up his hand and cried out:

"Stop, brethren! Let them depart in peace!"

The police were telephoned for, but before the officers arrived the suspects made their escape.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

REID MAKES ESCAPE.

Convict Unlocks Nine Doors, Saws Three Chains and Then Disappears.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 11.—William J. Reid, alias L. O. Hoffman, who is charged with swindling 32 hotels of about $10,000 from the Atlantic to the Pacific in 1902, and is now under sentences aggregating 10 years for these offenses, broke jail here under remarkable circumstances and is still at large.

To accomplish his escape he unlocked nine doors and sawed through three chains, visited six different rooms of the county jail, passed in front of several guards and finally climbed an 18-foot wall. All this was done about 3 o'clock in the morning, yet he was not missed until 7 o'clock. He was supposedly too weak to move without the use of a crutch, had been practically bedridden for three months and so far as the prison officers know had eaten nothing but beef broth in all that time.

Sheriff E. P. Clark made a thorough investigation, but he finds that many details of the escape are still unexplained. Reid was arrested in San Francisco under sensational circumstances in June, 1902, and after a legal battle was brought to Springfield. He was sentenced to four years and six months in the county jail for swindling hotels here and immediately sentenced in Boston to five years to state's prison for swindling Boston hotels.

WANTED HEART EMBALMED.

Eccentric Salt Lake Dentist Made Extraordinary Will.

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 11.—The remarkable provisions of a will made 25 years ago have been brought to light through a letter to County Clerk James from Mrs. Robert Irving of New York, asking for information regarding the disposition made of the estate of her grandfather, Dr. Charles Frederick Winslow, an eccentric naturalist, who died in this city in 1877, leaving a valuable estate.

After making valuable bequests to his children Dr. Winslow requests that after his death his heart be cut out, embalmed, enclosed in a glass case and placed on the coffin of his mother on the island of Nantucket. In a similar vessel he requests that the ashes of his cremated body be buried with the body of his wife in a cemetery near Cambridge, Mass. As there had been but two previous cremations in the United States and none in Utah, much difficulty was found in carrying out this request, it being necessary to construct a temporary furnace in the heart of the city at a cost of $1,500. Nearly every person in the city gathered to witness the cremation.

Springfield, O., Jan. 11.—Charles Foster, former governor of Ohio and secretary of the treasury during the administration of Benjamin Harrison, is dead at the home of his life-long friend, General Warren Keifer.

He came to this city to go with General Keifer to Columbus, where they were to have attended the inauguration of Governor-elect Herrick. While sitting in the library he suddenly gave a gasp of pain, clutched at his side and fell back in his chair. His death followed in a few hours.

The funeral of former Governor Charles Foster will take place from his residence Tuesday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Hyslop of Tiffin and Rev. J. F. Harshberger of Fostoria. Friends will be permitted to view the body before the funeral.

COMPANY D, SIXTH REGIMENT, FORMERLY THE FOSTER LIGHT GUARDS, WILL ACT AS AN ESCORT.

Mayor Cunningham has issued a proclamation suspending business in the city departments during the funeral.

TROOPS DRAW NEARER.

Colombia Lands 300 Soldiers Adjacent to Panama Republic.

Washington, Jan. 11.—A dispatch from Rear Admiral Coghlan, commanding the American naval forces on the Atlantic side of the isthmus of Panama, says that a sailing vessel which has just arrived at Colon reports the arrival of 300 Colombian troops at St. Andrews Island.

This island is off the coast of Nicaragua, but is a dependency of Colombia. Admiral Coghlan says this information confirms that which he had previously in regard to the report of the landing of these troops. It is believed that the troops are those which left the mouth of the Atrato river some time ago bound for the north. It is believed they went to St. Andrews Island to put down a secession movement which it was announced had assumed some shape there.

The Talamancan's hut, which is a masterpiece in the art of thatching, is a huge affair and shelters his entire family and all his worldly possessions, including the domestic animals. As he is a past master in the art of domesticating the wild deer, the peccary, the tapir and even the tiger cat, numbers of these animals are present in every village. His bed consists of the trunk of a certain species of palm cut into strips and supported three or four feet from the ground on a frame. A few earthen pots complete the furnishings of his house.

Charley Doble (Budd's Brother) and His Harness Racing Career.

One of the best known light harness horsemen in the United States is Charles P. Doble, a brother of the famous Budd Doble. He has trained trotting horses for over thirty years. One of his first engagements was with General Benjamin F. Tracy at Marshall farm, Owego, N. Y. He was with the general for eight years and then entered the employ of his brother Budd, who drove Dexter and Goldsmith Maid to their best records.

His stable is composed of Frank Yokum, 2:11½; Annie M., 2:16½; Susie S., 2:24½; Dortmund, 2:15½; Nellie Bly, 2:19½; Orlando, 2:25½; Awake, 2:27½; Ozette, 2:15½; Treble, 2:20½; Jack D., 2:11½; and Invoice, a green pacer. BABY TROTTERS.

Lexington, Ky., a Kindergarten For Future Harness Stars.

This is the season of the year when the baby trotter reigns supreme. Never was this fact more discernible than at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association track at Lexington, Ky., at the present time.

The old campaigners are setting in for a winter's rest, and the two and three year olds to be in 1904 are laid over until the approach of spring. This leaves the grounds a perfect kindergarten, alive with colts and fillies, some of which are scarcely from the sides of their dams for thirty days. First led to the halter alone, then by the side of a horse with slight gearing on, they are gradually educated to harness, and in a month or six weeks after leaving the paddocks of their home farm they are jogging along like an old timer to a break cart, and some of them show flashes of speed which is phenomenal.

This system of training weanlings has become general among horsemen in Kentucky. They contend that the earlier they are broken the better disposition a colt or filly has, and there are cases where owners have forced the baby trotting system to even a sort of handling with a weanling still at her dam's side.

According to an extremely good judge, fillies are more apt pupils than colts as weanlings.

This authority says fewer pacers appear among the fillies that are trotting bred than the colts, and they are all around better doers and much more reliable than youngsters of the steeper sex.

Baron Wilkes, 2:18.

The admirers of Baron Wilkes, 2:18, are pointing with pride to the fact that the race records for the season for trotting mare, stallion and gelding are held by horses sired by sons of that stallion. Feren, 2:05½, the fastest mare, was sired by Moko, a brother to Bumps, 2:03½; Rhythmic, 2:06½, the fastest stallion, was sired by Oakland Baron, 2:09½, the fastest trotting stallion by Baron Wilkes, and Prince of Orange, 2:06½, was sired by Prince of India, 2:13½, one of his best race horse sons. The triple honor is one that has probably not been held by any other sire.

With the Boston Golfers.

Devotees of golf in the vicinity of Boston are unusually active in making plans for next season. The formation of the Massachusetts Golf association last spring apparently put new life in the players of the east.

Baron Wedgewood.

Baron Wedgewood, about the best unmarked trotter that paraded in company this year, will come down the line in Lon McDonald's stable next season.

Fitz and Choyanski.

As long as Fitzsimmons lasts Choyanski will stick to the fighting game. Joe says he will retire when Bob does.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored spots break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing.

ANOTHER SIDE TO THE CONTROVERSY

OAKLAND CITIZENS WILLING TO TAKE WHAT IS OFFERED.

Realize That Free Delivery Is Now Impossible and That Kicking Is Useless.

There is yet another side of the proposed extension of the city mail delivery system and in justice to a large number of residents of the extreme East End, who have taken the matter up, it is here presented. If the present feeling crystallizes into definite action, the developments will be highly interesting. The people who have not yet been heard on the question state that they do not sanction the stand of a certain self-constituted leader, who in spite of the adverse report of Inspector Craighead, is still clamoring for the extension of the delivery system over sparsely settled territory, where there are no sidewalks or house numbers.

"We realize that we cannot get free delivery under the present conditions," said a prominent resident of Oakland this morning, "and if this kicking is kept up we will not get relief that will be afforded in the two propositions, a rural route or a sub-station, offered by the inspector. It cannot be expected that the department ignore precedent and regulation in our own case, and there is no use in fighting when defeat is certain."

"I am told," the speaker continued, "that Inspector Craighead did make a thorough inspection of the extreme East End, in spite of the statement to the contrary. He was driven to a point near Poynter's store, from which he could see to the state line. Before reaching that point he had encountered conditions that made it impossible for him to make a favorable report."

"We propose to stop this useless and annoying policy of obstruction and if we cannot get what we want, be sensible enough to take what is offered. As to the two propositions, a sub-station near Poynter's store or a rural route, there is some difference of opinion, but the latter seems to be in greater favor as it offers relief not only to East End, but to Calhoun's addition and Dixonville."

"The people from Central avenue eastward propose to gradually improve the sidewalks, number the houses, etc., so that in proper time they will be included in the extension of the carrier system."

REV. MR. CROWE HOME

Preached From His Pulpit Morning and Evening to Unusually Large Congregations.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, returned Saturday from Apollo, Pa., where he had been assisting Rev. Mr. Daubenspeck, of the Presbyterian church there, in the services preparatory to communion. Rev. Mr. Crowe preached from his pulpit both morning and evening to large congregations.

The attendance at Sunday school and the church services surpassed any previous records of the church, for an ordinary Sunday with no special services as an attraction. The minister and members of the congregation are much pleased over the great interest manifested.

Dr. Grimes was called to Wellsville Sunday on professional business. He was also called today to New Somerset, Jefferson county, to see John Wilson, who has been seriously ill for several days.

Grover Laughlin, of Pennsylvania avenue, is in a serious condition today at his home. He had been ill with measles but took a heavy cold and yesterday pneumonia developed. Laughlin is a member of Buckeye Castle, K. G. E., and his illness has been reported to the lodge officials.

The will of the late William Cocks, who died at the home of relative on Pennsylvania avenue a short time ago, is to be probated at Lisbon tomorrow and Rev. N. M. Crowe and J. W. Wood, who witnessed the instrument, are required to be present. They will leave for Lisbon in the morning.

Pittsburg Priest Points Out Anarchists in His Congregation.

Exciting Scene Takes Place in St. Casimir's Lithuanian Roman Catholic Church—Priest Accuses Them of Plotting Against His Life.

Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—Three alleged members of a band of anarchists who were implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley were driven from St. Casimir's Lithuanian Roman Catholic church, South Twenty-second and Sarah streets, where they had created a riot. The men were declared by the Rev. Father Sutkeltis, pastor of the church, to be preparing to take his life. A guard of police was placed around the priest's residence and warrants were issued for the arrest of the three suspects.

From the altar of his church last night Father Sutkeltis made disclosures of the most startling character. He revealed details in the plot for McKinley's assassination which had never before been brought to light. He declared that a band of "Reds" makes its rendezvous in Pittsburg and holds secret sessions in a secluded house in Forbes street. For years, he said, he has been under their ban, and no efforts would be spared to let himself escape their secret warrant of death.

Standing before his congregation, facing his alleged would-be assassins, the priest fearlessly charged them with their crimes. When his churchmen rose to his support and were ready to vent their wrath upon the men, Father Sutkeltis held up his hand and cried out:

"Stop, brethren! Let them depart in peace!"

The police were telephoned for, but before the officers arrived the suspects made their escape.

New Castle, Pa., Jan. 11.—One child is dead and two possibly fatally injured and two others burned in a fire resulting from an explosion of kerosene poured by children upon a coal stove.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a "rumbling" sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

REID MAKES ESCAPE.

Convict Unlocks Nine Doors, Saws Three Chains and Then Disappears.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 11.—William J. Reid, alias L. O. Hoffman, who is charged with swindling 32 hotels of about $10,000 from the Atlantic to the Pacific in 1902, and is now under sentences aggregating 10 years for these offenses, broke jail here under remarkable circumstances and is still at large.

To accomplish his escape he unlocked nine doors and sawed through three chains, visited six different rooms of the county jail, passed in front of several guards and finally climbed an 18-foot wall. All this was done about 3 o'clock in the morning, yet he was not missed until 7 o'clock. He was supposedly too weak to move without the use of a crutch, had been practically bedridden for three months and so far as the prison officers know had eaten nothing but beef broth in all that time.

Sheriff E. P. Clark made a thorough investigation, but he finds that many details of the escape are still unexplained. Reid was arrested in San Francisco under sensational circumstances in June, 1902, and after a legal battle was brought to Springfield. He was sentenced to four years and six months in the county jail for swindling hotels here and immediately sentenced in Boston to five years to state's prison for swindling Boston hotels.

Baron Wilkes, 2:18.

The admirers of Baron Wilkes, 2:18, are pointing with pride to the fact that the race records for the season for trotting mare, stallion and gelding are held by horses sired by sons of that stallion. Feren, 2:05 1/4, the fastest mare, was sired by Moko, a brother to Bumps, 2:03 1/4; Rhythmic, 2:06 1/4, the fastest stallion, was sired by Oakland Baron, 2:09 1/4, the fastest trotting stallion by Baron Wilkes, and Prince of Orange, 2:06 1/4, was sired by Prince of India, 2:13 1/4, one of his best race horse sons. The triple honor is one that has probably not been held by any other sire.

With the Boston Golfers.

Devotees of golf in the vicinity of Boston are unusually active in making plans for next season. The formation of the Massachusetts Golf association last spring apparently put new life in the players of the east.

Baron Wedgewood.

Baron Wedgewood, about the best unmarked trotter that paraded in company this year, will come down the line in Lon McDonald's stable next season.

Fitz and Choyne.

As long as Fitzsimmons lasts Choyne will stick to the fighting game. Joe says he will retire when Bob does.

CRUSHES OUT THE LIFE

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored blotches break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. Send for our home treatment book and write us if in need of medical advice or special information. This will cost you nothing.

Governor Nash, after one of the most successful administrations in the history of the state, finishes his second term as he began it, honored and trusted by the citizens of Ohio regardless of party affiliations. Seldom has it fallen to the lot of a public official anywhere to receive from party foes such high testimonials of merit as have been accorded to our retiring state executive during the past few weeks by leading Democrats and leading Democratic newspapers. The bitter campaigns of the past four years have disclosed no flaws in his record at any time and attacks upon his policies have been singularly few. He has given an honest, progressive and business-like administration, under which the state has prospered financially as never before, and great advancement has been made in lifting tax burdens from the shoulders of those least able to bear them and distributing them equitably. The state debt has virtually disappeared, and a state tax levy has almost reached the vanishing point. While the people witness his retirement with regret, they have every confidence that his successor, Colonel Herrick, a man of wide business experience, independence of character and sterling worth, is just the man to follow in his footsteps and continue the policies that have raised the standard of administrative effort until Ohio stands forth among the states as a commonwealth to be envied in all that makes for genuine and beneficial advancement.

The wonderful growth of the electrical industry in the United States is realized when we compare the census reports of the last three decades. The industry was so small and unimportant in 1880 that there were no statistics gathered of it. The figures of 1890 were extremely meagre. But by 1900 it had taken its place as one of the great industries of the country. So important has it become that the new permanent census bureau has compiled the statistics of electric lighting in the United States for 1902. According to this, we had last year 3,620 central stations, costing over 500 million dollars. Their gross income for the year was over 85 millions, their total expenses 68 millions. They give work to 23,330 employees, who receive almost 15 million dollars in wages per year. Of the 3,620 electric lighting stations but 815 are municipal plants, and these are nearly all in municipalities with less than 5,000 population.

President Palma, of Cuba, rose to the occasion and vetoed the lottery bill. He declared such an institution as a national lottery "immoral and degrading." Considering the popularity of all forms of gambling in the island, it took a high degree of courage for the president to rebuke this form of injustice. Cuba evidently has an executive who would rather be right than be popular.

Senator Morgan, says an exchange, is developing into a common scold. Those who have wasted their time in reading his tirades are pretty well convinced that further development along that line is impossible in his case.

Unless the governor of Pennsylvania interferes, we shall soon hear the last of Kruger confessions. Let us hope there will be no interference.

Some men are broadened by travel. Not so Mr. Bryan, who comes back from Europe and plants both feet on the Kansas City platform again.

Columbus people are complaining of over-heated street cars. East Liverpool will be glad to learn that such things can be.

And now one of Columbia's islands wants to be independent. Rats will desert a sinking ship.

Columbia is less eager to fight than she was a week or two ago.

Success to the new administration.

OBITUARY

Dr. Levi H. Fisher.

A telegram was received Saturday by William Fisher, of this city, announcing the death of his brother, Dr. Levi H. Fisher, of Shreveport, La. Dr. Fisher was born in 1827 and his boyhood days were spent on the Fisher place, one mile north of the city. He early decided upon a professional career and after graduation at Baltimore Medical college practiced in East Liverpool for a while, later removing to the south. After a few years spent in Texas, he located at Shreveport, La., where he made his home. Like many of Ohio's sons who have emigrated to distant states, he rapidly rose to a position of honor and distinction in his profession. He served through the civil war as a surgeon in the confederate army. The result of the war meant a loss of $25,000, as he held that amount in confederate money. Undaunted by the loss he resumed practice and in a few years had accumulated a much larger fortune than he had lost.

During the yellow fever epidemic of 1872 Dr. Fisher bravely did his duty in caring for the sick and dying. His wife succumbed to the dread disease; he was stricken, but finally recovered. A few years ago he retired from active practice. He made several visits to the home of his boyhood, the last being in 1877. He always took a lively interest in the affairs of the world and the development of this section. Dr. Fisher was a man of few words, but many generous deeds, for which he will be long remembered. He was courteous in manner, gentle in disposition and in private life beyond reproach. He united with the Presbyterian church early in life and lived an humble, pious and consistent Christian. His life was a positive power for good here, because he firmly believed in "the power of the endless life beyond."

Dr. Fisher is survived by a wife and three daughters, who mourn his death.

A Bold Holdup.

Within my time in Texas (and I am not such an old man either) two stage-coaches containing about twenty-three passengers were stopped and all the valuables of the passengers taken by one man. The robber made them all stand in a row and "hand over." The route was only traveled by one coach, but on account of the large number of passengers an additional coach was put on that day. The robber stopped the first coach and made the passengers get out. When the passengers in the first coach were lined up the second coach made its appearance. He made them get out and then told them he didn't expect two coaches. That was nerve. A Jew insisted on retaining enough of his money to get his dinner. The robber took all and then gave him back 50 cents, and the Jew got into an argument with him as to the amount being sufficient to get a meal. "That was cheek," the robber went off with all the money of the twenty-three passengers, and yet there were many brave men in that caravan, but discretion was the better part of valor. The robber had two pistols out and ready. A shot from one of the twenty-three would have caused the robber to shoot, and several would have been killed. That's the only way they looked at it.—Forest and Stream.

Balzac's Impenetrability.

Of Balzac it is stated that whenever he was hard at work he went to roost "like the fowls," as he himself put it, at 7 in the evening. He was called at 1 in the morning and wrote till 8; then took another hour and a half of sleep; then after a light meal went to work again until 4 in the afternoon; then he took a bath, saw a few friends, took perhaps a short walk and immediately after dinner went off to bed.

"I shall be compelled," he wrote, "to lead this nigger's life for a few months without stopping in order not to be swamped by those terrible bills that are due." And yet he was always hard up for money.

AT THE THEATER

Lincoln J. Carter will present at the Grand next Saturday night the stirring drama of western life, "The Flaming Arrow." The story relates the love of a daughter of a colonel of the United States army, commanding a western post, for a young Indian, "White Eagle," and the machinations of two villains which furnish the motive for action.

The announcement of the return engagement of Ernest Lawson in his great pastoral success, "Young Tobe Hoxie," is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure at the Grand opera house, Friday, January 15. Mr. Lawson is without doubt an actor of rare attainment and one that puts his whole soul into his work.

Few happenings in amusements will be welcomed more heartily than the Will H. Myers Big Stock company at the Grand opera house for three nights, opening tonight with "Through the Breakers," one of last season's great successes, and the first time this season at popular prices.

Pulse Beats.

The rate of the pulse in males at different ages is as follows: At birth, 130 beats per minute; at 5 years, 83 beats per minute; between 10-15 years, 78 beats per minute; between 15-20 years, 60.5 beats per minute; between 20-25 years, 60.7 beats per minute; between 25-30 years, 71 beats per minute; between 30-50 years, 70 beats per minute.

In females the rate is from 1 to 4.5 beats faster per minute.

Slow walking raises the pulse from 10 to 20 beats, while rapid running may raise it to 140. This rise may last from half an hour to an hour.

Eating raises the pulse from 8 to 20 beats; without wine, 13.1; with wine, 17.5. In the morning the pulse is 10 beats higher than at night. When the barometer rises 5 inches the pulse increases 1.3 per minute. If the pulse be 66.6 while lying down it will be 70 when sitting and 78.9 when standing.

Transformation.

An English farmer had a number of guests to dinner and was about to help them to some rabbit when he discovered that the dish was cold. Calling the servant, he exclaimed, "Here, Mary, take this rabbit out and eat it and bring it back a little 'otter!'"

A Slander.

The Lady—I gave you a piece of pie last week, and you've been sending your friends here ever since.

The Trump—You're mistaken, lady. I'm was my enemies.—Judge.

Economical.

"Doesn't it cost you a good deal to run this yacht, old man?"

"Yes, but my wife can't spend a cent when she's here."

GRIP.

A DOCTOR HAS FOUND AN ANTIDOTE.

"I know it is very unprofessional," said Dr. Karl Bauer, of North Port, "but I'm going to tell you how I cure Grip. There goes a funeral now. I'll wager it's a Grip victim. Thank goodness its no patient of mine, for I haven't lost a case since I began using Brazilian Balm. O yes, it's a proprietary article and sold by druggists, but etiquette must stand aside before such a scourge as this. Why, this is the only thing known that kills the germ, hence it always prevents pneumonia and collapse. It takes a little time and people should get the 50 cent or $1.00 bottle and stick to it till every vestige of the disease disappears, then no after bad effects will follow. For all diseases of the head, throat and lungs and for bronchitis, asthma, pleurisy and croup, it is simply incomparable."

What the Doctor says is true, and hundreds of other physicians are using Brazilian Balm, because it's the one thing that cures. Sold by druggists or sent on receipt of price.

Governor Nash, after one of the most successful administrations in the history of the state, finishes his second term as he began it, honored and trusted by the citizens of Ohio regardless of party affiliations. Seldom has it fallen to the lot of a public official anywhere to receive from party foes such high testimonials of merit as have been accorded to our retiring state executive during the past few weeks by leading Democrats and leading Democratic newspapers. The bitter campaigns of the past four years have disclosed no flaws in his record at any time and attacks upon his policies have been singularly few. He has given an honest, progressive and business-like administration, under which the state has prospered financially as never before, and great advancement has been made in lifting tax burdens from the shoulders of those least able to bear them and distributing them equitably. The state debt has virtually disappeared, and a state tax levy has almost reached the vanishing point. While the people witness his retirement with regret, they have every confidence that his successor, Colonel Herrick, a man of wide business experience, independence of character and sterling worth, is just the man to follow in his footsteps and continue the policies that have raised the standard of administrative effort until Ohio stands forth among the states as a commonwealth to be envied in all that makes for genuine and beneficial advancement.

The wonderful growth of the electrical industry in the United States is realized when we compare the census reports of the last three decades. The industry was so small and unimportant in 1880 that there were no statistics gathered of it. The figures of 1890 were extremely meagre. But

by 1900 it had taken its place as one of the great industries of the country. So important has it become that the new permanent census bureau has compiled the statistics of electric lighting in the United States for 1902. According to this, we had last year 3,629 central stations, costing over 500 million dollars. Their gross income for the year was over 85 millions, their total expenses 68 millions. They give work to 23,330 employees, who receive almost 15 million dollars in wages per year. Of the 3,629 electric lighting stations but 815 are municipal plants, and these are nearly all in municipalities with less than 5,000 population.

President Palma, of Cuba, rose to the occasion and vetoed the lottery bill. He declared such an institution as a national lottery "immoral and degrading." Considering the popularity of all forms of gambling in the island, it took a high degree of courage for the president to rebuke this form of injustice. Cuba evidently has an executive who would rather be right than be popular.

Senator Morgan, says an exchange, is developing into a common scold. Those who have wasted their time in reading his tirades are pretty well convinced that further development along that line is impossible in his case.

Unless the governor of Pennsylvania interferes, we shall soon hear the last of Kruger confessions. Let us hope there will be no interference.

Some men are broadened by travel. Not so Mr. Bryan, who comes back from Europe and plants both feet on the Kansas City platform again.

Columbus people are complaining of over-heated street cars. East Liverpool will be glad to learn that such things can be.

And now one of Colombia's islands wants to be independent. Rats will desert a sinking ship.

Colombia is less eager to fight than she was a week or two ago.

Success to the new administration.

OBITUARY

Dr. Levi H. Fisher.

A telegram was received Saturday by William Fisher, of this city, announcing the death of his brother, Dr. Levi H. Fisher, of Shreveport, La. Dr. Fisher was born in 1827 and his boyhood days were spent on the Fisher place, one mile north of the city. He early decided upon a professional career and after graduation at Baltimore Medical college practiced in East Liverpool for a while, later removing to the south. After a few years spent in Texas, he located at Shreveport, La., where he made his home. Like many of Ohio's sons who have emigrated to distant states, he rapidly rose to a position of honor and distinction in his profession. He served through the civil war as a surgeon in the confederate army. The result of the war meant a loss of $25,000, as he held that amount in confederate money. Undaunted by the loss he resumed practice and in a few years had accumulated a much larger fortune than he had lost.

During the yellow fever epidemic of 1873 Dr. Fisher bravely did his duty in caring for the sick and dying. His wife succumbed to the dread disease; he was stricken, but finally recovered. A few years ago he retired from active practice. He made several visits to the home of his boyhood, the last being in 1877. He always took a lively interest in the affairs of the world and the development of this section. Dr. Fisher was a man of few words, but many generous deeds, for which he will be long remembered. He was courteous in manner, gentle in disposition and in private life beyond reproach. He united with the Presbyterian church early in life and lived an humble, pious and consistent Christian. His life was a positive power for good here, because he firmly believed in "the power of the endless life beyond."

Dr. Fisher is survived by a wife and three daughters, who mourn his death.

AT THE THEATER

Lincoln J. Carter will present at the Grand next Saturday night the stirring drama of western life, "The Flaming Arrow." The story relates the love of a daughter of a colonel of the United States army, commanding a western post, for a young Indian, "White Eagle," and the machinations of two villains which furnish the motive for action.

The announcement of the return engagement of Ernest Lawson in his great pastoral success, "Young Tobe Hoxie," is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure at the Grand opera house, Friday, January 15. Mr. Lawson is without doubt an actor of rare attainment and one that puts his whole soul into his work.

Few happenings in amusements will be welcomed more heartily than the Will H. Myers Big Stock company at the Grand opera house for three nights, opening tonight with "Through the Breakers," one of last season's great successes, and the first time this season at popular prices.

Pulse Beats.

The rate of the pulse in males at different ages is as follows: At birth, 136 beats per minute; at 5 years, 83 beats per minute; between 10-15 years, 78 beats per minute; between 15-20 years, 60.5 beats per minute; between 20-25 years, 60.7 beats per minute; between 25-30 years, 71 beats per minute; between 30-50 years, 70 beats per minute.

In females the rate is from 1 to 4.5 beats faster per minute.
Slow walking raises the pulse from 10 to 20 beats, while rapid running may raise it to 140. This rise may last from half an hour to an hour.

Eating raises the pulse from 8 to 20 beats; without wine, 13.1; with wine, 17.5. In the morning the pulse is 10 beats higher than at night. When the barometer rises 5 inches the pulse increases 1.3 per minute. If the pulse be 66.6 while lying down it will be 70 when sitting and 78.9 when standing.

Transformation.

An English farmer had a number of guests to dinner and was about to help them to some rabbit when he discovered that the dish was cold. Calling the servant, he exclaimed, "Here, Mary, take this rabbit out and eat it and bring it back a little 'otter!'"

A Slander.

The Lady—I gave you a piece of pie last week, and you've been sending your friends here ever since.
The Tramp—You're mistaken, lady. I'm your enemies.—Judge.

Economical.

"Doesn't it cost you a good deal to run this yacht, old man?"
"Yes, but my wife can't spend a cent when she's here."

A Bold Holdup.

Within my time in Texas (and I am not such an old man either) two stage-coaches containing about twenty-three passengers were stopped and all the valuables of the passengers taken by one man. The robber made them all stand in a row and "hand over." The route was only traveled by one coach, but on account of the large number of passengers an additional coach was put on that day. The robber stopped the first coach and made the passengers get out. When the passengers in the first coach were lined up the second coach made its appearance. He made them get out and then told them he didn't expect two coaches. That was nerve. A Jew insisted on retaining enough of his money to get his dinner. The robber took all and then gave him back 50 cents, and the Jew got into an argument with him as to the amount being sufficient to get a meal. That was cheek. The robber went off with all the money of the twenty-three passengers, and yet there were many brave men in that caravan, but discretion was the better part of valor. The robber had two pistols out and ready. A shot from one of the twenty-three would have caused the robber to shoot, and several would have been killed. That's the only way they looked at it.—Forest and Stream.

Balzac's Impunctuality.

Of Balzac it is stated that whenever he was hard at work he went to roost "like the fowls," as he himself put it, at 7 in the evening. He was called at 1 in the morning and wrote till 8; then took another hour and a half of sleep; then after a light meal went to work again until 4 in the afternoon; then he took a bath, saw a few friends, took perhaps a short walk and immediately after dinner went to bed.
"I shall be compelled," he wrote, "to lead this nigger's life for a few months without stopping in order not to be swamped by those terrible bills that are due." And yet he was always hard up for money.

GRIP.

A DOCTOR HAS FOUND AN ANTIDOTE.

"I know it is very unprofessional," said Dr. Karl Bauer, of North Port, "but I'm going to tell you how I cure Grip. There goes a funeral now. I'll wager it's a Grip victim. Thank goodness its no patient of mine, for I haven't lost a case since I began using Brazilian Balm. O yes, it's a proprietary article and sold by druggists, but etiquette must stand aside before such a scourge as this. Why, this is the only thing known that kills the germ, hence it always prevents pneumonia and collapse. It takes a little time and people should get the 50 cent or $1.00 bottle and stick to it till every vestige of the disease disappears, then no after bad effects will follow. For all diseases of the head, throat and lungs and for bronchitis, asthma, pleurisy and croup, it is simply incomparable."
What the Doctor says is true, and hundreds of other physicians are using Brazilian Balm, because it's the one thing that cures. Sold by druggists or sent on receipt of price.

WELLSVILLE AND VICINITY

HAPPY CONGREGATION
AT M. P. CHURCH

The Last of a $1,500 Debt Paid and the Mortgage Burned Yesterday.

The M. P. church of Wellsville, held a grand jubilee yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in that edifice in honor of burning the last mortgage of $1,500 against the church.

Rev. J. A. Selby, president of the Muskingum conference, and one of the first pastors, was present and delivered a most interesting history of the congregation. A special choir was present and rendered some fine music for the occasion.

Rev. Dr. Selby came to Wellsville just as the old church located on Fourth street was burned. The congregation had, however, before that time purchased a lot on Main street, where the present handsome edifice now stands. After the fire Dr. Selby, assisted by Attorney W. F. Lones and others, raised a handsome fund in subscriptions and the work of erecting the new church home began. Dr. Selby, 14 years ago with the pick and shovel, assisted by Messrs. Pacey and Cleckner, two old members of the congregation, first broke ground for the building. They also assisted in hauling and handling every brick put into the new edifice. At that time there were but 60 members in the congregation. He gave an interesting recital of the struggles and trials to build the new church home. There was a fund of $99 in the Y. P. C. E. society which was utilized. On the 5th day of October, 1889, he was regularly installed pastor of the church. At that time the congregation used the Christian church and opera house to hold services and a year after the handsome edifice was completed at a cost of $10,000.

Shortly after a grand revival followed, and 50 new members were added to the church, which has prospered fairly well under the different pastors who served the congregation since those struggling days 14 years ago. Therefore, there was a happy congregation yesterday afternoon when the last vestige of the debt was removed.

At the end of Dr. Selby's interesting historical recital the choir rendered a most pleasing selection, a silver offering following. Rev. C. H. Beck, the pastor, then stepped to the altar and burned the mortgage and notes before the entire congregation. The event was one of the most pleasing in the history of the church.

RIVAL RAILROADS

Want the Coal Traffic Which Will Come from a Big West Virginia Field.

Oliver Roseberry, of New Cumberland, who has been leasing coal lands for a number of Pittsburgh and Cleveland capitalists, was in Wellsville Saturday evening, and says he is not yet satisfied whether these tracts, some 15,000 acres, will furnish patronage to the Pennsylvania company's lines or the Wabash.

Both companies are working might and main to secure the immense coal trade which will be developed in that section.

Pastor Has Not Resigned.

Rev. L. F. Lavery, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, says that the report that he has resigned is an error. He has received a call from Kankakee, Ill., but has not accepted it. He is still considering it. He has not, however, resigned his pastorate, and the presbytery, at the coming meeting, will not have the matter to consider.

TOBACCO UNDER THE BAN

Judge Hervey Issues Orders Against Its Use By Jurors in Court.

By reason of a recent resolution inaugurated by Judge H. C. Hervey, who sits on the circuit bench at New Cumberland at regular intervals, it is probable many jurors and others in Hancock county will be subjected to a great annoyance in being compelled to refrain from using tobacco during the sessions of court.

Judge Hervey has ruled in every other district under his jurisdiction that the use of tobacco in the court room shall be discontinued henceforth, and it is feared the average resident of Hancock county, who, as a rule, must consume vast quantities of the weed while he piles his jack knife to a piece of store lox during the deliberations of the court, will be seriously handicapped. However, it is thought a compromise may be effected when the new rule is made to apply to Hancock county.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

For Extension of the Freshwater Oil Interests in the Turkeyfoot Field.

M. Freshwater, who with his father and brothers is interested in oil developments in the Turkeyfoot and other districts in the vicinity of Chester, was in town this morning and stated the prospects so far as his company was concerned were never better.

The Freshwaters have possessions in the Turkeyfoot field, but are now working in what is known as the North End extension including the Carson field. The No. 4 well on the Wesley Herron farm came in Saturday, and preparations are being made to shoot it tomorrow. The hole gives evidence of being worth from eight to ten barrels a day. Another rig is being reared on this farm, and as soon as it is completed drilling will be commenced on No. 5.

The Freshwater drillers have been at work on several old wells on the John Swearingen farm and the third was cleaned out recently. All of these wells have made a good showing, and will be fully developed.

HAPPY CONGREGATION
AT M. P. CHURCH

The Last of a $1,500 Debt Paid and the Mortgage Burned Yesterday.

The M. P. church of Wellsville, held a grand jubilee yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in that edifice in honor of burning the last mortgage of $1,500 against the church.

Rev. J. A. Selby, president of the Muskingum conference, and one of the first pastors, was present and delivered a most interesting history of the congregation. A special choir was present and rendered some fine music for the occasion.

Rev. Dr. Selby came to Wellsville just as the old church located on Fourth street was burned. The congregation had, however, before that time purchased a lot on Main street, where the present handsome edifice now stands. After the fire Dr. Selby, assisted by Attorney W. F. Lones and others, raised a handsome fund in subscriptions and the work of erecting the new church home began. Dr. Selby, 14 years ago with the pick and shovel, assisted by Messrs. Pacey and Cleckner, two old members of the congregation, first broke ground for the building. They also assisted in hauling and handling every brick put into the new edifice. At that time there were but 60 members in the congregation. He gave an interesting recital of the struggles and trials to build the new church home. There was a fund of $99 in the Y. P. C. E. society which was utilized. On the 5th day of October, 1889, he was regularly installed pastor of the church. At that time the congregation used the Christian church and opera house to hold services and a year after the handsome edifice was completed at a cost of $10,000.

Shortly after a grand revival followed, and 50 new members were added to the church, which has prospered fairly well under the different pastors who served the congregation since those struggling days 14 years ago. Therefore, there was a happy congregation yesterday afternoon when the last vestige of the debt was removed. At the end of Dr. Selby's interesting historical recital the choir rendered a most pleasing selection, a silver offering following. Rev. C. H. Beck, the pastor, then stepped to the altar and burned the mortgage and notes before the entire congregation. The event was one of the most pleasing in the history of the church.

RIVAL RAILROADS

Want the Coal Traffic Which Will Come from a Big West Virginia Field.

Oliver Roseberry, of New Cumberland, who has been leasing coal lands for a number of Pittsburgh and Cleveland capitalists, was in Wellsville Saturday evening, and says he is not yet satisfied whether these tracts, some 15,000 acres, will furnish patronage to the Pennsylvania company's lines or the Wabash.

Both companies are working might and main to secure the immense coal trade which will be developed in that section.

Pastor Has Not Resigned.

Rev. L. F. Laverty, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, says that the report that he has resigned is an error. He has received a call from Kankakee, Ill., but has not accepted it. He is still considering it. He has not, however, resigned his pastorate, and the presbytery, at the coming meeting, will not have the matter to consider.

H. S. Rinehart, the contractor, put 20 teams to work this morning on the C. & P. yards extension contract. He has recently purchased several more new teams for the work.

TOBACCO UNDER THE BAN

Judge Hervey Issues Orders Against Its Use By Jurors in Court.

By reason of a recent resolution inaugurated by Judge H. C. Hervey, who sits on the circuit bench at New Cumberland at regular intervals, it is probable many jurors and others in Hancock county will be subjected to a great annoyance in being compelled to refrain from using tobacco during the sessions of court.

Judge Hervey has ruled in every other district under his jurisdiction that the use of tobacco in the court room shall be discontinued henceforth, and it is feared the average resident of Hancock county, who, as a rule, must consume vast quantities of the weed while he pines for a jack knife to a piece of store tobacco during the deliberations of the court, will be seriously handicapped. However, it is thought a compromise may be effected when the new rule is made to apply to Hancock county.

Hiram Allison, the present incumbent, has announced that he will not be a candidate again, so that Mr. Good's chances are thought to be of the best. The latter has displayed a knack for capturing crooks, and this, coupled with his characteristic fearlessness, makes him a leading candidate for the appointment.

Honey By the Carload.

John A. Buchanan, a prominent resident of Holliday's Cove, was in Chester last week, and while here gave out some interesting information with regard to the honey business as an industry. Mr. Buchanan is in the honey business at Holliday's Cove, and is one of the largest producers in the state. While he has extensive interests at home, it does not begin to supply the demand, and he has received four carloads from California during the past season. He owns 800 colonies of bees in the latter state, and his trade extends all through western Pennsylvania.

Leap Year Party.

Preparations have been completed for a leap year party tonight, the prime movers in which reside in Nessley district, south of Chester. The young ladies are among the best known and most prominent society leaders of that neighborhood, and have invited eight young men equally prominent in social circles. It is proposed to make the trip in sleds to the home of Madison Evans, near New Cumberland, where they will be entertained by Miss Marguerite Evans, who will be one of the party. An elaborate dinner has been arranged.

Many Attending College.

A larger number of Hancock county young men are attending the University of West Virginia this year than ever before, and last week was a busy one at Morgantown. The students from this section all reached that city the latter part of the week, and together with the other 600 students experienced some difficulty in securing desirable quarters. The coming term promises to be one of the most prosperous and profitable in the history of the institution.

They will return to Chester some time next week and will go to housekeeping here.

The girls say many of them have beaux who preach out of town Sundays and are not here at the close of the week, hence are shut out entirely from the privilege of calling, thus leaving the dormitory girls without fellows.

REALM OF SPORTS

FAMOUS PLAYERS
IN WAGNER'S FIVE

All the Players Celebrated Either in Basket Ball or Base Ball.

BIG EVENT OF THE SEASON

Pavilion Will Be Filled With Admirers of the Great Dutchman, Deacon Philippe And Other Stars—Local Lineup Not Changed.

Hans Wagner and his famous basket ball players will be just as welcome tomorrow night as if they had agreed to come gratis instead of trying to gobble most of the gate receipts and take down a purse of $100. The "Big Five," as Wagner's bunch is called, is one of the very best teams in the country. Every player is a star with a national reputation, either in basket ball or base ball.

When it comes to making terms, however, Manager Gallimore is just a little more shrewd than Hans and his cohorts and when the contract was finally signed it was so conditioned that an equitable share of the gate receipts will be made. The thirty Dutchman will not get the $100 purse.
But we can't blame Hans for being thirty and his terms will not interfere with the Big Five drawing the biggest crowd of the season to the Southside pavilion.

There will be "Deacon" Philippe, the premier twirler of the Pittsburgh longhairs, who tried so hard to beat the Beaneaters Americans in the series for the championship of the world. He will be on the gate, taking tickets, so that all who pass in may stare. The deacon does not play the game.

Honus Wagner, indisputably the best all-around base ball player in the world, and no slouch at basket ball, will play one of the forwards in the game and his brother Al, famous as the manager of the Toronto team, of the Eastern league, is also one of the forwards.

Dixon, the champion goal thrower of the world, is one of the forwards. He has an unsurpassed record of 43 field goals in one game; his accuracy being something remarkable. Lampe, the crack Allegheny player who made a great record last year, alternates with Staley, last year with Homestead and Carnegie.

Seibel, one of the guards, is an old
D. C. & A. C. player and is well known here. He came down with the South-side five and umpired one-half of the game. He is a great player. Eddie Campbell was here this year with D.
C. & A. C. He is captain of the Butter team, but plays with several other teams.

This formidable array of talent will be met by the regular lineup of the local five, Allison, Bloor and Powell, forwards; Rigby, center, and Watkin and Chadwick, guards. The boys have been practicing faithfully and will be in good condition.

That the game will be the big event of the season is apparent from the great sale. The sale commenced Saturday evening at Larkins' drug store and many have been taken. To prevent speculation on the seats the number sold to one person is limited to eight.

There will be no curtain raiser for this game and the first half will be called at 8:30 o'clock.

A BIG CONTRACT

Young Corbett Won't Find Britt So Easy As He Imagines.

Young Corbett has bitten off a whole lot to chew when he matched himself with Jimmy Britt. The latter is a husky, hard-hitting chap, much taller than the little champion, which gives him an advantage.

Corbett, however, must be given credit for knowing what he is about.
He has proven, time and again, that he is capable of looking after his own affairs, and he evidently has reasons for believing that Britt will not be a hard man for him.

In this connection it might be said that Corbett always has the greatest respect for Hanlon, because, as he often has said, a fighter who could block him or keep out of reach was a hard opponent for him, but one who will step in and fight at close range is a clinch. Britt is one of those give-and-take fellows that Corbett likes. He is something on the McGovern order and Corbett always claimed that Mc-Govern was made to order for him.

It is evident that Corbett proposes to make hay while the sun shines, and for this reason does not propose to lie idle for awhile. He will probably take

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The election of officers of the national commission has been postponed until next September, when the present officials will have served one year.

Bob Osborne, of Homestead, who made a good record on the Dubuque (Ia.) team last season, is wanted by the management of the Jacksonville (Fla.) team.

Manager Armour, of the Cleveland, has nine pitchers on his staff, and says that he has no surplus. But there will be about four who will not draw more than one month's salary.

Philadelphia is trying to secure Second Baseman Bowcock from Columbus.
President Bryce refuses to part with the man, who finished the season with the St. Louis Americans.

John M. Ward, the famous ex-ball player, was defeated in the inauguration golf tournament at Pinhurst, N.
C., by E. A. Freeman. Ward is one of the few old-timers to take up golf.

William J. McDermith, who lies dead at Columbus, was president of the Tri-State league when the late Ed Delehanty, Ad Gumbert, Roaring Bill Kennedy and "Cy" Young were stars of the organization.

The national commission has adopted a rule that hereafter all players must report for practice in uniform.
This will do away with the habit some players have of sitting in the grand stand and watch the others work.

Just One Minute.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of coughs, colds and croup. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take, harmless and good alike for young and old. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger (only.)

DEMAND REINSTATEMENT.

Workmen at Ohio Carnegie Plant Threaten to Strike.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 11.—At a meeting of the employees of the Ohio plant of the Carnegie Steel company it was voted to request the reinstatement of the seven men who, it is alleged, were dismissed because of their prominence in the calling of a former meeting to protest against a reduction in wages.

A committee was appointed to wait upon the company and present the claims of the workmen. After the meeting it was stated that if the men were not reinstated a strike would be inaugurated, which would close up the plant.

All Clear at Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 11.—The river is now clear of ice from this city to Cairo, Ill., and all boats are expected to resume navigation the last of the week.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system.
In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance.
It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H.
Bulger.

Bulgarians Invade Turkey.
Salonica, Jan. 11.—A force of troops has been sent to Kumanova, 16 miles northeast of Uskub, where a strong Bulgarian band has invaded Turkish territory. Fighting is reported to have occurred at Kuchana, 50 miles southeast of Uskub, the Bulgarians losing 100 killed.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take; perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

ARMIES ASSEMBLING

Russia Hurries Soldiers to Far East Ready to Oppose Japanese.

EVERYBODY EXPECTS A CLASH

Warships Recently Bought of Argentine Republic Speeding from Genoa to Yokohama for Equipment—Attempt Was Made to Destroy One.

Pekin, Jan. 11.—Predictions in the native press that a war is inevitable and immediate and that China will certainly be involved are causing great uneasiness. Many Chinese fear a repetition of the scenes of pillage and murder which made the year 1900 memorable.

Numbers of the employees on the railroad between New Chwang and Shan Hai Kwan have deserted their posts, thinking that the country traversed by the railroad will surely be the scene of the fighting.

Reports from Manchuria are to the effect that there is great military activity there. The railroads are bringing troops from Russia and the women and children at Port Arthur and New Chwang has been called to Port Arthur for service. Every steamer for Japan is carrying the Japanese from North China who belong to the reserve.

The Japanese censorship of military news gives opportunity for all kinds of rumors here, one of which is that Japanese troops have been landed at Fusan, Korea. As cable communication with Korea is through Japan it is impossible to obtain reliable news.

Rome, Jan. 11.—The Italia says that Russian warships sighted between Genoa and Spezia are believed to be spying on and following the Japanese cruisers Niasin and Kasaga, which left Genoa Saturday.

It has become known that some unknown persons had attempted to set the Niasin on fire by tampering with the electrical appliances. The police have begun an inquiry into the matter.

Tokio, Jan. 11.—It is announced that the Russian warships which left Vladivostok have returned there.
The port of Sascho is filled with officers taking leave of their families.
Despite the general impatience over the situation there is no great excitement here.

BARON HAYASHI, Japanese Minister to Great Britain, Who Believes Russia Means War.

The scheme for a division of Korea between Japan and Russia as outlined in a telegram from Berlin is considered here to be wholly imaginary.

London, Jan. 11.—It is learned on the highest authority that it has been decided in the event of war between Russia and Japan that Germany will maintain a strict neutrality and that other members of the Dreikaiserlied will observe a similar attitude.

The importance of this decision, which the Associated Press understands will almost immediately be announced in some official manner in Berlin, cannot be easily overestimated.
It will in a measure insure that hostilities will be confined to the two powers concerned and it will be certain to give a great stimulus to the efforts which France and Great Britain are making in St. Petersburg and Tokio respectively in favor of peace.

At the Japanese legation it was said that the Far Eastern situation remains unchanged. No news had been received by the legation and it was believed that some days might elapse before any developments occurred, as Japan was still considering her reply.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 11.—The most reliable news received here is that the mass of Russian troops in the Far East are concentrated at Vladivostok or on the northern frontier of Korea.

Referring to the interest of the United States in the situation, the Novoe Vremya says: "Undoubtedly the United States above all other powers can confidently expect that its trade will not suffer by Russian possession of Manchuria and it would be foolish on America's part to demand now what she could gain peacefully when everything quiets down."

The Novikoff urges the necessity of opposing a Pan-European alliance to a Pan-Asiatic alliance of the yellow race against the white race, which it at the point of ripening under a Japanese hegemony.

Commenting on the possibility of Japanese vessels employing the British flag, the Novoe Vremya contends that the custom of civilized states requires that warships will sail under their own national flags.

MUST BE FIREPROOF.

Chicago Will Strictly Regulate Construction of Stages in Theaters.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The special committee of aldermen and building experts appointed by Mayor Harrison to revise the ordinances regulating the construction and operation of playhouses as a result of the fire at the theater have completed a new theater ordinance. Chicago theaters, with the possible exception of three of them, probably will open their doors within a week or 10 days. The three theaters may not be permitted to open because their stages and auditoriums are more than 15 feet above the street level.

The theaters that agree to conform to the new regulations will be permitted to open under certain restrictions and with the understanding that they comply with every provision of the new law regulations before Oct. 1.

In the meantime the galleries that have inadequate exit facilities will be closed and two to four firemen detailed on the stage. The new ordinance will require that every stage be made absolutely fireproof back of the proscenium arch by requiring fireproof walls, steel curtains, steel gridded and rigging, steel frames for the stage and the installation of automatic sprinkling systems. This will mean the practical reconstruction of every stage in the city.

In addition to this every theater will have to be re-seated to comply with the new regulations and special stairways from each balcony and gallery connecting directly with the street will have to be constructed.

A meeting of the relatives of people who were lost in the fire was held to agree upon concerted action toward establishing responsibility for the fire and for accomplishing the punishment of the people who should be found guilty of criminal negligence. It was held at the office of E. S. Hull, whose wife and three children perished in the fire. A committee of five was appointed to arrange for a larger meeting to be held Wednesday evening.

The officers of Mr. Hull having been found too small to accommodate all who desired to gain admittance. Several of the speakers at the meeting urged that if the coroner's jury fixed the responsibility of the disaster upon any of the city officials they should be attacked in the civil courts and made responsible for damages as long as their property should last.

It was the sense of the meeting that suits should be instituted against Klaw & Erlanger, who represent the eastern stockholders in the theater and the manner of doing this will be decided upon at the meeting next week.

SAN DOMINGO IN UPROAR.

Battles and Bombardments Still in Progress There.

San Domingo, Jan. 11.—Revolutionists continue to fire shells into the city and several private dwellings have been damaged.

The revolutionists have defeated
General Castillo at San Cristobal, capturing two cannon and a considerable quantity of arms and ammunition.
Many were killed and wounded in a fierce fight.

A man named Pierce, an American, entered the city bearing a communication from General Navarro, minister of war in the Jimenez government, to United States Minister Powell. The messenger was arrested by the government authorities, who took the message from him and sent him back.

In his communication General Navarro requested Minister Powell to intervene with the provisional government, but the minister refuses to treat with the general.

San Pedro de Macoris is quiet. The situation here remains unchanged, but matters are complicated because it is impossible to foresee the duration of the revolution or its outcome. Business in general is suffering in consequence.

SMOOT MAKES DENIAL.

Says He Is Not Polygamist, but Loyal Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The response of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah to the charges made against him was presented to the senate committee on privileges and elections by Senator
Burrows, chairman of that committee.
John G. Carlisle of New York, formerly secretary of the treasury, and R. W. Taylor, formerly representative in congress from Ohio, will appear for the prosecution at the hearing next Saturday, while Mr. Smoot will be represented by Messrs. A. S. Worthington of Washington, D. C.; Walde-man Van Cott of Utah, and W. E.
Bosa, of Idaho.

Senator Smoot in his answer says he is not a polygamist and owes no obligation to his church inconsistent with his duty as a citizen or senator.

STEAMER FOUNDERS

Fifty-Two Men, Women and Children Go Down With Ill-Fated Clallam.

LIFEBOATS ARE ALL SWAMPED

Heavy Sea Beat Ship to Pieces and She Sank Within Three Miles of Land—Only a Few of Passengers and Crew Saved.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 11.—Fifty-two lives were lost by the sinking of the steamer Clallam, from Victoria to Seattle, during a heavy storm, near Port Townsend in the strait of Fuca.

The Clallam was the regular daily packet between Victoria and Seattle and was making fairly good progress across the strait until off the entrance to Victoria. Then a terrific cross sea began to batter the ship. Little fear was felt, however, until word came from below that the vessel was leaking. The waves had broken in a "dead light" and a great volume of water was pouring into the hold.

Every woman and child aboard the Clallam perished. Within three miles of shore, and at a time when it appeared certain the Clallam had been lost, a desperate effort was made to save the women and children in the lifeboats. They were placed in the first boat to leave the ship, which Captain Lawrence, a Yukon pilot, volunteered to command, and which was manned by deckhands.

The frail craft went down within sight of the Clallam, and a second lifeboat filled with male passengers and in command of Second Officer
Curran was lost a few minutes later.

More passengers and members of the crew were lost when a third life-boat was swamped in an attempt to launch it. Not a hand could be raised to aid its occupants.

In the meantime word had come from Victoria of the vessel's predicament, and a fleet of powerful tugs dispatched from here to render assistance. The Richard Holyoke was the first to reach the Clallam, which had careened partly over from the crush of water, which had put the engines out of commission. The Holyoke got a line aboard and was towing the Clallam to safety, when she took a heavy lurch and those remaining aboard were compelled to climb up the side to safety, finally reaching the roof of the pilot house.

The tug's boats were lowered and the work of rescue commenced. At this point the tug Sea Lion arrived, and her men rendered valuable assistance. Before all the struggling people had been taken off the Clallam commenced to break up and soon afterward went down.

The sinking of the Clallam fulfills the prediction of the superstitious seamen along the North Pacific coast.
When she was launched at Tacoma last April the bottle of champagne for misadventure was not broken, but slid down the hatch and was engulfed in the bay. Old seamen at once formed a dislike to the vessel and predicted that disaster would overtake the vessel within a year.

DISLIKE NOZALEDA.

Spanish People Demonstrate Against Pope's Appointment.

Rome, Jan. 11.—Vatican authorities are greatly displeased because of the Spanish demonstrations against Monsignor Nozaleda, former archbishop of Valencia. It is said at the vatican that the appointment was intended to gratify the Spanish people, as Archbishop Nozaleda was one of Spain's own prelates who was struck most severely by the Spanish-American war and who through that war lost the prominent position which he held in the Philippines.

The vatican now finds that the appointment has caused general dissatisfaction, and while some persons look upon it as displeasing to Americans it has undoubtedly failed to please the Spaniards.

The Spanish government through Ambassador Deaguera has informed the vatican that it is ready to suppress any manifestations against Archbishop Nozaleda and that it will support his appointment.

FAMOUS PLAYERS

IN WAGNER'S FIVE

All the Players Celebrated Either in Basket Ball or Base Ball.

BIG EVENT OF THE SEASON

Pavilion Will Be Filled With Admirers of the Great Dutchman, Deacon Philippe And Other Stars—Local Lineup Not Changed.

Hans Wagner and his famous basket ball players will be just as welcome tomorrow night as if they had agreed to come gratis instead of trying to gobble most of the gate receipts and take down a purse of $100. The "Big Five," as Wagner's bunch is called, is one of the very best teams in the country. Every player is a star with a national reputation, either in basket ball or base ball.

When it comes to making terms, however, Manager Gallimore is just a little more shrewd than Hans and his cohorts and when the contract was finally signed it was so conditioned that an equitable share of the gate receipts will be made. The thrifty Dutchman will not get the $100 purse. But we can't blame Hans for being thrifty and his terms will not interfere with the Big Five drawing the biggest crowd of the season to the Southside pavilion.

There will be "Deacon" Philippe, the premier twirler of the Pittsburgh leaguers, who tried so hard to beat the Ben-entling Americans in the series for the championship of the world. He will be on the gate, taking tickets, so that all who pass in may stare. The deacon does not play the game.

Honus Wagner, indisputably the best all-around base ball player in the world, and no slouch at basket ball, will play one of the forwards in the game and his brother Al, famous as the manager of the Toronto team, of the Eastern league, is also one of the forwards.

Dixon, the champion goal thrower of the world, is one of the forwards. He has an unsurpassed record of 43 field goals in one game; his accuracy being something remarkable. Lampe, the crack Allegheny player who made a great record last year, alternates with Staley, last year with Homestead and Carnegie.

Seibel, one of the guards, is an old D. C. & A. C. player and is well known here. He came down with the Southside five and umpired one-half of the game. He is a great player. Eddie Campbell was here this year with D. C. & A. C. He is captain of the Butler team, but plays with several other teams.

This formidable array of talent will be met by the regular lineup of the local five, Allison, Bloor and Powell, forwards; Rigby, center, and Watkin and Chadwick, guards. The boys have been practicing faithfully and will be in good condition.

That the game will be the big event of the season is apparent from the fact that the sale commenced Saturday evening at Larkins' drug store and many have been taken. To prevent speculation on the seats the number sold to one person is limited to eight.

There will be no curtain raiser for this game and the first half will be called at 8:30 o'clock.

A BIG CONTRACT

Young Corbett Won't Find Britt So Easy As He Imagines.

Young Corbett has bitten off a whole lot to chew when he matched himself with Jimmy Britt. The latter is a husky, hard-hitting chap, much taller than the little champion, which gives him an advantage.

Corbett, however, must be given credit for knowing what he is about. He has proven, time and again, that he is capable of looking after his own affairs, and he evidently has reasons for believing that Britt will not be a hard man for him.

In this connection it might be said that Corbett always has the greatest respect for Hanlon, because, as he often has said, a fighter who could block him or keep out of reach was a hard proposition for him, but one who will step in and fight at close range is a cinch. Britt is one of those give-and-take fellows that Corbett likes. He is something on the McGovern order and Corbett always claimed that McGovern was made to order for him.

It is evident that Corbett proposes to make hay while the sun shines, and for this reason does not propose to lie idle for awhile. He will probably take Heavy Sea Beat Ship to Pieces and She Sank Within Three Miles of Land—Only a Few of Passengers and Crew Saved.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 11.—Fifty-two lives were lost by the sinking of the steamer Clallam, from Victoria to Seattle, during a heavy storm, near Port Townsend in the strait of Puca.

The Clallam was the regular daily packet between Victoria and Seattle and was making fairly good progress across the strait until off the entrance to Victoria. Then a terrific cross sea began to batter the ship. Little fear was felt, however, until word came from below that the vessel was leaking. The waves had broken in a "dead light" and a great volume of water was pouring into the hold.

Every woman and child aboard the Clallam perished. Within three miles of shore, and at a time when it appeared certain the Clallam had been lost, a desperate effort was made to save the women and children in the lifeboats. They were placed in the first boat to leave the ship, which Captain Lawrence, a Yukon pilot, volunteered to command, and which was manned by deckhands.

The frail craft went down within sight of the Clallam, and a second lifeboat filled with male passengers and in command of Second Officer Currin was lost a few minutes later.

More passengers and members of the crew were lost when a third lifeboat was swamped in an attempt to launch it. Not a hand could be raised to aid its occupants.

In the meantime word had come from Victoria of the vessel's predicament, and a fleet of powerful tugs dispatched from here to render assistance. The Richard Holyoke was the first to reach the Clallam, which had careened partly over from the crush of water, which had put the engines out of commission. The Holyoke got a line aboard and was towing the Clallam to safety, when she took a heavy lurch and those remaining aboard were compelled to climb up the side to safety, finally reaching the roof of the pilot house.

The tug's boats were lowered and the work of rescue commenced. At this point the tug Sea Lion arrived, and her men rendered valuable assistance. Before all the struggling people had been taken off the Clallam commenced to break up and soon afterward went down.

The sinking of the Clallam fulfills the prediction of the superstitious seamen along the North Pacific coast. When she was launched at Tacoma last April 14, a bottle of champagne by mischance was not broken, but slid down the side and was engulfed in the bay. Old seamen at once formed a dislike to the vessel and predicted that disaster would overtake the vessel within a year.

Spanish People Demonstrate Against Pope's Appointment.

Rome, Jan. 11.—Vatican authorities are greatly displeased because of the Spanish demonstrations against Monsignor Nozaleda, former archbishop of Valencia. It is said at the Vatican that the appointment was intended to gratify the Spanish people, as Archbishop Nozaleda was one of Spain's own prelates who was struck most severely by the Spanish-American war and who through that war lost the prominent position which he held in the Philippines.

The Vatican now finds that the appointment has caused general dissatisfaction, and while some persons look upon it as displeasing to Americans it has undoubtedly failed to please the Spaniards.

The Spanish government through Ambassador Deaguer has informed the Vatican that it is ready to suppress any manifestations against Archbishop Nozaleda and that it will support his appointment.

SMOOT MAKES DENIAL.

Says He Is Not Polygamist, but Loyal Citizen.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The response of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah to the charges made against him was presented to the senate committee on privileges and elections by Senator Burrows, chairman of that committee. John G. Carlisle of New York, formerly secretary of the treasury, and R. W. Taylor, formerly representative in congress from Ohio, will appear for the prosecution at the hearing next Saturday, while Mr. Smoot will be represented by Messrs. A. S. Worthington of Washington, D. C.; Waldman Van Cott of Utah, and W. E. Bosa, of Idaho.

Senator Smoot in his answer says he is not a polygamist and owes no obligation to his church inconsistent with his duty as a citizen or senator.

Chicago Will Strictly Regulate Construction of Stages in Theaters.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The special committee of aldermen and building experts appointed by Mayor Harrison to revise the ordinances regulating the construction and operation of playhouses as a result of the fire at the theater have completed a new theater ordinance. Chicago theaters, with the possible exception of three of them, probably will open their doors within a week or 10 days. The three theaters may not be permitted to open because their stages and auditoriums are more than 15 feet above the street level.

The theaters that agree to conform to the new regulations will be permitted to open under certain restrictions and with the understanding that they comply with every provision of the new law regulations before Oct. 1.

In the meantime the galleries that have inadequate exit facilities will be closed and two to four firemen detailed on the stage. The new ordinance will require that every stage be made absolutely fireproof back of the proscenium arch by requiring fireproof walls, steel curtains, steel griddon and riggings, steel frames for the stage and the installation of automatic sprinkling systems. This will mean the practical reconstruction of every stage in the city.

In addition to this every theater will have to be re-seated to comply with the new regulations and special stairways from each balcony and gallery connecting directly with the street will have to be constructed.

Warships Recently Bought of Argentine Republic Speeding from Genoa to Yokohama for Equipment—Attempt Was Made to Destroy One.

Peking, Jan. 11.—Predictions in the native press that a war is inevitable and immediate and that China will certainly be involved are causing great uneasiness. Many Chinese fear a repetition of the scenes of pillage and murder which made the year 1900 memorable.

Numbers of the employees on the railroad between New Chang and Shan Hai Kwan have deserted their posts, thinking that the country traversed by the railroad will surely be the scene of the fighting.

Reports from Manchuria are to the effect that there is great military activity there. The railroads are bringing troops from Russia and the women and children at Port Arthur and New Chang have been called to Port Arthur for service. Every steamer from Japan is carrying the Japanese from North China who belong to the reserve.

The Japanese censorship of military news gives opportunity for all kinds of rumors here, one of which is that Japanese troops have been landed at Fusan, Korea. As cable communication with Korea is through Japan it is impossible to obtain reliable news.

Rome, Jan. 11.—The Italia says that Russian warships sighted between Genoa and Spezia are believed to be spying on and following the Japanese cruisers Nislin and Kasaga, which left Genoa Saturday.

It has been known that some unknown persons had attempted to set the Nislin on fire by tampering with the electrical appliances. The police have begun an inquiry into the matter.

Tokio, Jan. 11.—It is announced that the Russian warships which left Vladivostok have returned there. The port of Sascho is filled with officers taking leave of their families. Despite the general impatience over the situation there is no great excitement here.

A meeting of the relatives of people who were lost in the fire was held to agree upon concerted action toward establishing responsibility for the fire and for accomplishing the punishment of the people who should be found guilty of criminal negligence. It was held at the office of E. S. Hull, whose wife and three children perished in the fire. A committee of five was appointed to arrange for a larger meeting to be held Wednesday evening. The offices of Mr. Hull having been found too small to accommodate all who desired to gain admittance. Several of the speakers at the meeting urged that if the coroner's jury fixed the responsibility of the disaster upon any of the city officials they should be attacked in the civil courts and made responsible for damages as long as their property should last.

It was the sense of the meeting that suits should be instituted against Klaw & Erlanger, who represent the eastern stockholders in the theater and the manner of doing this will be decided upon at the meeting next week.

Workmen at Ohio Carnegie Plant Threaten to Strike.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 11.—At a meeting of the employees of the Ohio plant of the Carnegie Steel company it was voted to request the reinstatement of the seven men who, it is alleged, were dismissed because of their prominence in the calling of a former meeting to protest against a reduction in wages.

A committee was appointed to wait upon the company and present the claims of the workmen. After the meeting it was stated that if the men were not reinstated a strike would be inaugurated, which would close up the plant.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system.

In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Salonica, Jan. 11.—A force of troops has been sent to Kumanova, 16 miles northeast of Uskub, where a strong Bulgarian band has invaded Turkish territory. Fighting is reported to have occurred at Kuchana, 50 miles southeast of Uskub, the Bulgarians losing 100 killed.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES AT STATE HOUSE

New Executive Takes the Oath and in Response to the Plaudits of Thousands, Delivers His Inaugural Address—Scenes and Incidents of the Event.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—(Special.) The inauguration of Governor Herrick was a gala day in the capital city. Thousands upon thousands poured into the city to assist in doing honor to their chosen executive. Military and civic societies were in abundance, the city was dressed in holiday attire, both public and private buildings were gaily decorated in patriotic colors and the splendid appointments for the day's celebration were carried out in detail without a single untoward incident. The state's military, under the command of Brigadier General Spears, upon their arrival from the various towns and cities, marched to the Goodale street auditorium. The Grand Army posts, and the fraternal societies, were cared for by the local committees of the various orders. Shortly before 10 o'clock the escort of the governor, consisting of Troops A and B, Ohio National Guard, marched to the residence of the governor, Broad street and Lexington avenue.

THE NEW GOVERNOR. where they were joined by the inaugural committee of the legislature, which accompanied the governor-elect to the historic state house. The procession then formed and moved down Broad street to the state house, where the governor-elect and the escort entered the capitol grounds from the north entrance and proceeded to the capitol.

enorelect with his party the judges of the Supreme court, under the direction of Mr. S. O. Randall, proceeded from the state library to their position in the rotunda. They were followed by the other state officials and invited guests and the great circle beneath the dome of the capitol, beautifully draped with American flags and bunting, was filled to overflowing.

TAKES THE OATH. After the governor-elect had entered the rotunda and had taken the position assigned to him, the inaugural ceremonies began with a musical selection by Fourth Regiment band of Columbus. The rendition filled the galleries of the state capitol and when the echoes had died away Secretary John Y. Bassell, of the Columbus Board of Trade, made introductory remarks.

The remarks of Mr. Bassell were followed by a fervent prayer by Rev. Dr. S. S. Palmer, of the Broad Street Presbyterian church. Rev. Palmer invoked the Divine blessing and earnestly prayed for the spiritual guidance of the executive of the state and nation and the continuance of peace. The Columbus Republican Glee club, known from coast to coast as one of the best musical organizations of its kind, then sang the American hymn in a manner which added new laurels to their credit.

In the impressive silence that followed, Hon. George K. Nash, the retiring governor, handed to Colonel Myron T. Herrick, governor-elect, his commission to office. The formal transfer of the affairs of state was made and all that now remained was the taking of the oath.

The scene that followed will never be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to witness it. With hand uplifted Colonel Herrick, in the full vigor of middle life, a strong type of sterling manhood, responded to the solemn oath before Hon. Jacob F. Burkett, the venerable chief justice of the Supreme court of Ohio. The great contrast formed a striking picture as Mr. Herrick kissed the Bible in the hand of the chief justice.

Upon the conclusion of Governor Herrick's address the ceremonies closed with "The Star-Spangled Banner," sung by the Columbus Glee club.

THE PARADE. The parade, which passed the reviewing stand on Broad street, opposite the north entrance to the capitol, surpassed in splendor and magnitude all previous reviews on inaugural days. The militia alone in the procession numbered upward of 3,000, while the great number of civic societies made the column the longest ever seen on a similar occasion in the state capital. The militia was composed not only of cavalry, infantry and battery arms of the state service, but by the naval reserves from Cleveland and Toledo. In addition to these the regulars from the barracks participated. Fifteen hundred people sat upon the reviewing stand while thousands more crowded the line of march. By far the most spectacular and interesting feature of the grand pageant were the figures, mounted on horses, which represented the progress of the world. There were Roman warriors, crusaders of the Thirteenth century, Virginia cavaliers with the quaint dress of the early colonial days, Continental soldiers, old settlers with the long rifles and coon skins of a century ago, veterans of the Mexican and civil wars and the Rough Riders, each representing the spirit of the times to which they are accredited.

REVIEWS STATE AFFAIRS.

Governor Herrick's Inaugural Address. Opposed to Extravagance.

Governor Herrick was at his best when he delivered his inaugural address. He said: To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives: In your presence and in the presence of this great concourse of citizens, fully sensible of the duties about to devolve upon me as chief executive of our state, I have taken a solemn oath to perform those duties to the best of my ability. By the verdict of my fellow citizens I have been selected to assume the duties of governor of Ohio, and to perform those duties and accept the responsibilities of this office, not as a partisan, but as a representative of the whole people.

The permanence of a state is in the adherence to its fundamental principles in the practical recognition of the object of government, which is to make the citizen secure in the enjoyment of life, liberty and property, and the people of Ohio have demonstrated, irrespective of politics, their belief in and steadfastness to those principles in the recent election. Remembering this, it will be my endeavor to serve the state without fear or favor.

My predecessor was fortunate in having the hearty co-operation of the last legislature and the wise counsel of the other state officers. As a result of this harmonious working together, progress was made in the solution of taxation problems in the state, and the state finances, as reported by him, are in an exceedingly healthy and satisfactory condition. Let us counsel together as to how we may best preserve the credit and honor of our commonwealth while at the same time maintaining our public works and providing for the needs and necessities of our institutions. The question is, not how we shall spend the money in our state treasury, but how we may obtain the best results for the honor and integrity of our state for the honor of our citizens and in expending it wisely.

A surplus in the treasury too often tends to extravagance in the use of public money, and I ask my friends in the legislature to join with me and other state officers in the aim to have no extravagance in expending the state's money or recklessness in legislation.

NEED OF PRUDENCE. The affairs of a great state such as

A COUGH CONUNDRUM

When is a cough more than a cough? When it's a settled cold. When it hangs on in spite of all you can do. Cough mixtures won't cure it because they are merely for a cough and this is something more.

ours should be conducted with the same care and prudence that a careful man of business would exercise in the management of his own property. When a man in business has funds on hand he finds a safe and profitable investment for the same, that they may not lie idle and unproductive. From time to time the state of Ohio has in its treasury large sums of money. This means, not only that the business and commercial world is deprived of those amounts of circulating medium, but that the state has not the benefit of the interest which, under proper conditions and safeguards, it might use and enjoy. Having this in mind, I would recommend the passage of a state depository law similar to those in effective operation in other states; and if, in the necessarily hasty preparation and passage of the legislation of the municipal code, there be any defect in the depository law for municipalities, that should be corrected.

For the first time in the history of Ohio, by the vote of the people at the last election, the voters have authorized an amendment to confer the veto power upon the governor. While the possession of this power has its advantages, I am sensible of the fact that it also imposes grave responsibilities. In his message, has called your attention to the increase of legal business in the office of the attorney general occasioned by recent legislation and the constitutional amendments. In my judgment, all of the legal business connected with the affairs of the state in its various departments should be administered through the office of the attorney general; and to that end, it is manifest that his department will require assistance, and I trust, at an early day, the incoming attorney general will carefully review the situation and request the enactment of such legislation as will enable his office to properly care for and conduct the entire legal business of the various state departments.

TAXATION LAWS.

The constitutional amendment doing away with the double liability of stockholders of various corporations gives to the state of Ohio an opportunity to revise and codify its laws with reference to the organization and control of corporations so that our citizens will not feel impelled to incorporate in other states, for business which they wish to transact in the state of Ohio. It should rather be our aim to so re-enact the laws bearing upon incorporation of companies that they shall be as simple and comprehensive as possible, protecting alike all of our citizens, or those doing business within our state, who seek to invest their money in our corporate enterprises, and at the same time safeguarding the public in their dealings with such corporations.

Under the provisions of the national banking law, frequent examinations are made by competent examiners of the condition and soundness of banks established under the laws of the United States. These examinations, after a trial of 40 years, seem to amply justify this method of governmental supervision over banking institutions. Unfortunately, institutions established under the laws of the state of Ohio for banking purposes have, in some instances, met with disastrous failure, which might have been prevented and the public warned if a similar system should be established for them. In this connection I recommend either the establishment of a state banking department or the enlarging of the powers of the state auditor, so that all banking and trust companies incorporated under our state laws shall be subjected to thorough and confidential examination, to the end of ascertaining their condition alike to depositor and stockholder.

The rapid growth of interurban railroads, street railroads, and other public corporations, and the apparent demand for their enlargement in the few years, render it desirable that they shall be regulated and governed by wise legislation, that will encourage the investment of capital to the extent that it is necessary to meet the demands and requirements of the public; that will curb the expenditure of money, elected homes or institutions where those unfortunates may be cared for, and in many instances cured and restored to their homes and families. The maintenance of these and other state institutions requires careful management and attention. In one particular I think we are lacking in our control of these institutions. All successful business enterprises have a system of competitive bidding for the furnishing of supplies. The United States government, in the purchase of its supplies, has such a system. There is, therefore, all the more necessity that such a method be put in practice in our state institutions, and I recommend this subject to your earnest consideration. The state of Ohio has reason to be proud of its national guard for its efficiency and condition, and its readiness when we remember that Ohio stands twelfth in the list of her sister states in the matter of financial aid and support to her militia. It is our duty to do all in our power to improve its standing and readiness, especially since, under recent legislation, it becomes part of the army of the United States. With this in mind I have, under the law passed by your body, appointed as members of my staff, officers of the national guard, hoping in so doing to improve the personnel of the guard, that it may continue a credit to the state at home and abroad.

Foremost in our obligation as citizens is the exercise of the voting privilege. It is our duty to protect this privilege by every safeguard we can throw around it. From time to time various laws regulating the conduct of elections have been passed by the general assembly, some of which appear conflicting, and others which, in their operation, have become cumbersome and are incentives to illegality. I recommend to your consideration the subject of revising the laws governing primaries and elections, and the codifying of all statutes bearing upon the same.

SCHOOLS AND FORESTS. The common schools system of Ohio has always been a source of state pride. Among all the states Ohio was one of the first to adopt the splendid methods of the common free school for the education and development of the young. Incident to this, the legislature has from time to time enacted laws for the conduct of school affairs, so that there today exists a mass of legislation upon this subject in some respects not harmonious, and perhaps to some extent of doubtful constitutionality. It is the part of wisdom that these laws should be codified and amended to meet the needs and requirements of modern education. The last legislative session appropriated seventy-five thousand dollars for the expenses of a commission to properly represent our state at the centennial celebration of the Louisiana Purchase, to be held in St. Louis during the year. The great interest taken by other states and countries in this celebration, and the extensive preparation being made by many of our sister states, prompts the suggestion whether it is not desirable that the state of Ohio should send an assistant, to make more complete the showing of the state of Ohio with reference to its agricultural, horticultural, dairy, wool growing and other industries, to the centennial celebration, and exhibit on behalf of the state shall be properly cared for during the exposition.

The exhaustion of the great forests of the United States has been so rapid during the past few generations that the attention of scientists has been drawn to a marked degree to the harmful effect upon our water courses, streams and rivers, and upon the climate of our country, that a continuance of the cutting away of the forest will bring about within a comparatively short time. It is evident that the state of Ohio should avail to the benefits to be derived in rearing, to some extent at least, the forest and forest products which have disappeared. In some of the states, the Union legislatures have wisely provided for the protection of the forests and woods. I commend this subject to your serious consideration, to see if some means can not be devised whereby the growth of timber may be encouraged, not only for the profit arising from the growing of timber, but for the purpose of preserving our water supplies, protecting ourselves from disasters of flood and maintaining climatic conditions which are in some degree dependent upon our forests. The state can not too early nor too vigorously grasp this question, and provide for a systematic study of the beneficial effects of forests and forest products, not only to preserve what we have, but to encourage the replanting of trees that have been destroyed or cut down. In this connection, permit me to suggest what I would not feel wise to further encourage in the Ohio State university the study of forestry, and of other subjects which have a special bearing upon the development of the agricultural, mineral and manufacturing resources of the state.

In closing, I ask your hearty co-operation and assistance in the labors before me. I desire to congratulate our state upon the splendid administrations of Governor Nash, who has served the state as a good and faithful servant. Ohio has been fortunate in a long line of faithful executives, men who have reflected credit and honor upon the state, and who have signally aided in developing the greatness of our commonwealth. Splendid as this list is, as history is written, no administration has contributed more to the honor and integrity of our state than that of Governor Nash. I wish to extend to him my personal thanks for the kindness and friendship he has shown to me in assuming the office of governor, and I know that I am expressing the wishes and prayers of all the citizens of this state, in that he may long continue to live and honor his state, and still serve it in usefulness.

Cured After Suffering Ten Years. B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says: "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger (only).

SOCIAL EVENTS

Installation And Supper.

At the last meeting of Golden Rod No. 29, Ladies of the Maccabees, the officers for the coming term were installed and at once entered upon their duties. Two applications for membership were received and two candidates were initiated. The installation ceremonies were conducted by Installing Officer Mrs. Jennie Wucherer, and passed off in a most satisfactory manner.

After the business session was over covers were laid for about 40, and the retiring social committee finished their term by serving an elaborate turkey supper. The tables were especially beautiful, bedecked as they were with brand new china and silverware, cut glass and flowers. The committee consisted of Mrs. Bostock, Mrs. Wucherer, Mrs. Osburn, Mrs. Rodgers and Miss Jones, all of whom deserve the highest praise for the manner in which the affair was conducted.

Entertained Her Class.

Mrs. S. E. Fisher, residing a mile and a half north of the city, entertained the members of the Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church in a delightful manner on Friday evening. The class is composed of young ladies and two sleds were required to convey them to their destination. While ascending the Lisbon hill the foremost sled encountered about 20 rude coasters, who were riding on the hill. The young ladies demonstrated their ability to take care of themselves and little annoyance was suffered. The evening was enjoyably spent at the Fisher home and the party returned to the city at a late hour.

Gift of the Maccabees.

About 25 members of Golden Rod No. 29, Ladies of the Maccabees, invaded the home of Mrs. Washington Bucher, of Calcutta road, one evening last week, and presented her with a fine silk umbrella as a token of their hearty appreciation of her services as chaplain of the lodge. The affair was a complete surprise, and in spite of her confusion Mrs. Bucher made a very neat speech in response to the presentation. The evening was very enjoyably spent in music, games and song. At a late hour a nice luncheon was served.

Missionary Society.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the church and spend part of the time in sewing. A box will also be sent to a deaconess' home. At 3 o'clock a business meeting will be held, when the important questions of the monthly meeting will be discussed. The society has a very large and still young membership.

Other officials of the county were of the opinion the admission of so great a crowd would be attended with great danger, as the balcony where hundreds of people would be compelled to stand would not bear the great weight. Slayer of Motorman and Conductor Conscience Stricken.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 11.—John M. Shockley has made a full confession of the murder of Motorman Gleason and Conductor Brighton, who were shot and killed by a lone highwayman who attempted to rob their car.

In his confession Shockley declares he had no intention of killing his victims, but they put up such a vigorous fight when he attempted to rob them that he was forced to shoot them in self-defense. After the tragedy, he says, he contemplated suicide, but his nerve failed him when he put his pistol to his head.

Shockley says he is heir to considerable property and he wants to sign this over, without reserve, to aid the families of his victims.

As commander of the Confederate Second army corps he was the first to attack at Gettysburg, and he held the last line at Petersburg, fighting with stubborn valor for every inch of space. Yet he had not had a particle of military training, and when the war closed was only 30 years of age. Since then he was twice governor of his state and twice a member of the federal senate. He had been the commanding general of the Confederate Veterans since their organization.
